(II) Rules of Order of the North Indiana Conference.

RULE 1. The Conference shall meet at 9:00 A. M., and adjourn at 12.30 P. M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

RULE 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

RULE 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

RULE 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

RULE 5. The motions to Lay on the Table, to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

RULE 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions should intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

(1.) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
(2.) To adjourn.
(3.) To take a recess.
(4.) To lay on the table.
(5.) For the previous question.
(6.) To postpone to a given time.
(7.) To refer.
(8.) To substitute.
(9.) Amendment.
(10.) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended only once, and, if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

RULE 7. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

RULE 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

RULE 9. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

RULE 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

RULE 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

RULE 12. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

RULE 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

RULE 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

RULE 15. It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by a vote of two thirds, the question shall be taken.

RULE 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) When the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

RULE 17. These rules shall not be suspended except by a vote of two thirds of the members present and voting.

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

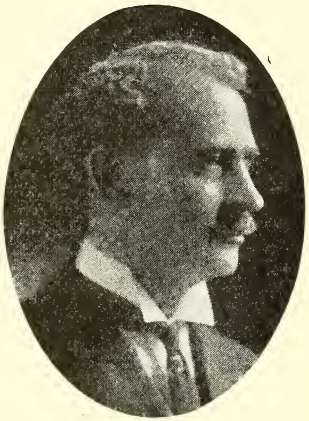
FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

Wallace W. Martin, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

I desire to express to you, Bishop Leete, and to the members of this Conference within and beyond the borders of the Fort Wayne District my high appreciation of the earnest prayers you have offered, and the words of comfort you have written and spoken during my recent serious illness. Times of waiting do not mean a real loss to men. God seems nearer and the ties of our brotherhood dearer than ever before.

Some changes were necessary following the last session of our Conference. I. W. Carnes was moved to Flint when the Flint charge was vacated by J. P. Chestnut, supply. Amos Zehr became pastor at Hartford and Roy S. Brown was moved from Coesse to Bobo. S. F. Painter was appointed to be pastor at Coesse. In the fall Brother Glen Bryan was compelled to give up his work and R. W. Newell was secured to supply Ashley.



W. W. Martin

Some changes in property have also been made. The following churches have been redecorated and the property placed in good condition: Angola, Geneva and Huntertown. At Waynedale, a suburb of Fort Wayne, a building was purchased for the sum of $3,000 and occupied as temporary quarters for this new society. Monroeville has already commenced extensive improvements to their church building. With the first fire of the autumn came the burning of our excellent church edifice in Montpelier. A severe shock to pastor and people, they have steadily set themselves to the task of rebuilding and the work has now so far advanced that soon all will be under roof again. The Union Chapel Church, of the Hartford and Union charge, has been rebuilt with added rooms all enclosed with brick veneer, and will soon be ready for dedication.

A crowning achievement was the dedication of our Trinity Church in Fort Wayne. Through the years the pastor and people had been planning for the erection of a new house of worship to take the place of their small building on Fourth Street. At a crucial moment they were helped to formal action by the promise of a little aid from the Board of Home Missions, and permission was given that the subscriptions for Centenary and new building should be combined and all amounts in excess of the Centenary apportionment remain as a building fund. By and by a man was found who was willing to turn to the Board of Home Missions property valued at more than $26,000 on annuity. This man was not a member of the church at that time. One of the most complete modern churches in the Conference was dedicated on October 8 by Bishop Leete. The call was made for $20,000, and from the time of the naming of the first subscription to the last there was no pause and $25,000 had been pledged. Great credit is due the pastor, Manford C. Wright, who by his management saved many thousands of dollars to the people in the erection of this building.

The Wayne Street Church, in Fort Wayne, has erected at an expense of near $85,000 a fine addition to their building for Sunday school and community work. It is expected that this fine structure will be ready for dedication on April 15, and that our bishop will be present and preach the dedicatory sermon.

Perhaps since we have referred to these two buildings in the metropolis of the North Indiana Conference, and the second city in the State, it is as well now to give you some more facts about Fort Wayne Methodism. While we were celebrating with our friends of Trinity Church the week following their dedication one evening was given to a banquet for all the official members of our churches in Fort Wayne, and that evening it was decided to form a Methodist Union and provide that all our churches shall be back of all Methodist enterprises of the city, and that, as far as possible, competitive effort shall be merged into united effort for our common cause. A constitution was adopted and at a later similar meeting at Simpson Church, when the speaker of the evening was Bishop Leete, directors and officers were elected.

It is expected that at this session of the Annual Conference a pastor shall be appointed to Lakeside and beginning with only the promise of small funds for a site and a bit for maintenance we shall develop eventually one of the strongest societies of the city.

For a couple of years, under the direction of First Church, some work has been done among the Syrians and Greeks in Fort Wayne, Miss Mary Metts, deaconess, being in charge. The opportunities here developed are of such character that the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Conference have accepted the call and, beginning with April 1, have charge of this important work. An organization has been formed and a constitution adopted and officers elected to take charge of this important work.

Our Methodist hospital in Fort Wayne is now running with practical full capacity. The building occupied as a nurses' home is too small and we must now arrange to use five flats on the same property, in addition to the original nurses' home. Plans are being worked out to increase the capacity so as to add thirty or forty beds. We now have a matron in charge of the nurses' home that social and other proprieties shall obtain with these nurses. We also have an instructress at the head of our nurses' training school, and also a supervising nurse for each floor of the hospital. I am sure it will please you to know that each Friday evening chapel services are held with the nurses by Rev. O. A. Trabue, field secretary, who also serves as chaplain of the hospital, visiting as far as possible each patient in the institution. You will also be pleased to know that each morning prayers are conducted by the nurses themselves, some supervising nurse in charge. It is expected that immediately after Conference a campaign for funds for these added rooms and obligations already assumed will be put on in the patronizing territory, and we believe this Conference will heartily endorse this movement, and our friends respond generously. On Monday of this week the first large gift was promised for this hospital. Brother W. W. Raine, of the Orlando charge, gives his farm of 180 acres, except a small personal reservation. The value of this gift to the hospital is $13,000. Brother Trabue was instrumental in securing this gift.

Bishop Leete was present and gave a delightful address to our young people at their annual booth festival. It was a great occasion. The young people brought to our hospital on this occasion $685.35 in cash and $3,122.46 in supplies of various kinds, making a total of $3,807.71. In various ways the contributions to this hospital from Fort Wayne District have amounted to $6,566.29, beside $825 paid on building fund to the Indianapolis hospital. Dr. Steele as superintendent and Rev. O. A. Trabue have worked together in the betterment of this institution with unflagging zeal and given good account of their stewardship.

Our people expect the Centenary offerings to increase this year in the Fort Wayne District. At the District Conference twenty-seven pastors reported on their expectations for the Centenary this year. Of these only five expressed themselves as fearing a decline in their charges, while eight expect same amount as last year, and fourteen expect an advance over last year's giving. I shall be glad when the reports are all in if the percentage holds good.

All pastors of the district pledged themselves to see that all who had made subscriptions and had amounts due on these pledges unpaid were seen personally and asked to meet these pledges.

We come now to Fort Wayne District's part in the State-wide evangelistic campaign. We believe in the saving power of Christ for men, and that it is the business of the minister of Jesus Christ to win men to Him. Our pastors have taken seriously the call of the bishop and the State Council for an evangelistic campaign in every church. As to methods we have felt that every man in his field must determine what is best. I think we have had every sort of good revival in Fort Wayne District this year. In a few instances evangelists have been employed. For the most part pastors have held their own meetings. Some have had continuous revivals with people bowing at the altar of prayer at well-nigh every service; in one or two cases the laymen have been organized for the campaign of house-to-house evangelism. The results are very gratifying.

At the time of this writing the largest church in the district, First Church, Fort Wayne, has the largest number of accessions, a total of 200, and the charge with the smallest membership, Stroh and Mongo, has the largest percentage of increase. Last year they reported thirty-two members in two churches, and they now have a net gain of twenty-nine. Stroh had a gain of twenty-five per cent, while Mongo had a gain of 250 per cent. Thirty charges report a net increase in members, while only three report a loss. So far as we can tabulate reports they are as follows for the district:

Conversions and reclamations	1,520
Received into full membership	714
Received by letter	500
Received from other churches	180
Received on probation—not full members	250
Total accessions	1,644
Net gain in membership	925

We all rejoice in the blessing of God that has made possible these results. But the passion of soul we trust will not pass with the Easter-tide.

In closing this report I wish to say that we have laymen and ministers in Fort Wayne District who rally to the call of Christ. I could mention scores of laymen in Fort Wayne District that you could not ask to perform any service for Christ but that they would respond: "Here am I; send me." With but few exceptions our ministers have been examples to such laymen and have considered no task too difficult if undertaken in the name of Christ. Some of our ministers during my illness have shown adaptation for the district superintendency, Bishop, but each one has said, after some experience, something like this: "Well, if I have ever had any lingering desire for this office in the church it has entirely gone, when I have faced the work in this age of the church." Of course, Bishop, they may not have been entirely serious. But I do declare it to be my conviction, whether it be in the office of bishop, or district superintendency, or pastorate, or in some secretaryship of the church, our times call for the loftiest kind of unselfish devotion and character. And the cry of our heart is, "Lord, give us men."

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

A. G. Neal, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

Coming through valleys and shadows at the time of our last Conference, I am ascribing devout praise to the heavenly Father and recording sincere appreciation for brotherly courtesy and consideration given by Bishop Leete and the Conference. But from the beginning of my work until now I have missed no place of service. Have held every Quarterly Conference for every charge. Have attended all district and area meetings. Have held many extra services where help was needed and averaged six sermons or addresses every week, and taken no period for vacation.

Goshen District has had a year thronged with duties and now renders account of work finished, undertakings commenced and programs planned.

A. G. Neal

Death has not invaded the ranks of the active ministry. No death coming to pastor, wife or parsonage child. Among our retired men, Rev. J. B. Cook—honored and beloved—answered the heavenly summons. For forty years of active ministry he toiled, and on many fields his friends in great number revere his memory.

Our district meetings have been well attended. Stewards at St. Marks; Woman's Home Missionary Society at St. Paul; District Council at Nappanee; Epworth League Convention at Kendallville; Booth Festival at Oakwood Park; Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at First Church, Goshen; Settlement Day at Milford, and District Conference at LaGrange—all well attended and profitable.

A fine organization of laymen has loyally helped through the year. The District Council is well officered and various chairmen have done well. Public officials have been encouraged and laws have been enforced.

Group programs have been given, minute men have given acceptable service and gospel teams have filled many engagements.

Improvements and debt paying have come to many places. Avilla, Corunna, LaGrange, Osceola, South Milford, Valentine and Waterloo are among these. At Etna Green the fine new parsonage was dedicated. The new church at Milford has arisen on the place made desolate by fire. T. S. Haddock and his people were delighted with the ministry of President Hughes, who came for the dedication. All the societies of the district—League, Aid, Missionary—are doing well. Beside all other work done the auxiliaries support three missionaries. The Epworth Leagues support Dr. Freeman in China. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society pay the salary of Miss Pauline Westcott, of Hinghwa and the Woman's Home Missionary Society supports MercedesNunyez, of the George O. Robinson Orphanage. Several churches plan to support pastors abroad. An unusual privilege comes to Mishawaka that they have assigned to them Mr. and Mrs. Mumby, who went from their church to India.

The benevolences—the Centenary—have received attention. Much faithful work has been done by faithful men. Apportioned $7,800 on "I Will Maintain," they raised $8,380. Conference benevolences are met and General Conference and Area claims paid in full. On the Centenary claims Goshen District has paid this year $69,378.

Our people face the fifth year of the Centenary bravely. If the world vision could be seen! If people of a world church would recognize their gracious privilege! If our good people could recognize what it means to Christ if we fail! By next Conference—not June—our payments would all be made and the new post-Centenary program would be well advanced.

Excuses, complaints, fault-finding, criticism, repudiation will not count. The money is the only proof.

Every Quarterly Conference has taken official action to endorse, encourage and assist in completing the work. Many tithers are being enrolled, and with a campaign of education and tireless energy the goal must be reached.

Next year will undoubtedly be the year of severest tasks ever undertaken by Goshen District. Any brother seeking an easy place would better take advantage of the Sabbatical year so kindly provided by the Discipline.

Evangelism has received attention. All methods were used. No meeting grasped an entire community; but all these services reached many for decisions and membership. Perhaps eight hundred decisions and six hundred accessions. New family altars have been established and several genuine life-service decisions. Several decided for ministry and mission field. Our lake region proves seductive. Automobiles—ten to the minute—pass on our main roads taking people so fast and so far that the church is neglected—the Sabbath unremembered and God's laws and wishes disregarded.

Several churches spent all winter in trying to build up attendance and have spectacular work and then take all summer to dissipate results. Gathering and scattering follow each other and in some places the church not so strong as years ago. I know explanations may be made, but if the time spent in explaining were spent in building, the walls might arise.

The greatest need for workers comes from village and rural work. In many places the salary is small—the parsonages not modern—the schools but medium—the vision of the Kingdom not clear. Personalities creep in and the spirit of the feud prevails. But in all these places abide good people. Some well educated; some saintly folks who have given well and have lived sacrificial lives; some strong people—leaders in political and fraternal affairs; many young men and women listening to the call of the world and the world calls; fine companies of children where life invested in teaching would bring greatest harvest. From these fields the ministry and missionary forces could be recruited.

But we need men and women to inspire, to challenge, to lead. Big men needed for little places—men who will live above gossip and personalities—who will devote time to pastoral work and sermon preparation—who will exalt the church—who will live above reproach—who will be men of God. In city and country alike the people—the people need to be won.

Golf clubs, tennis, checkers, horseshoes, fishing rod and banquets do not challenge the admiration of the toiling, striving, heart-broken people. O for a Holy Ghost call to the ministry that will give complete devotion and help to speedily bring our country to Christ the Lord!

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

F. A. Hall, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

It is with pleasure that we come to the Annual Conference time with the North Indiana Annual Conference, meeting within the bounds of the Logansport District, but it is with a disappointment that we come to report an unfinished task.

There have been many fine things for the Kingdom's interest that we would have been glad to see accomplished that we are compelled to mark "unfinished." Our pastors have labored courageously, and laymen loyal and true have worked faithfully on every charge. Had there been more of the loyal and faithful type we would have been able to make a better report.

Our report, Bishop, is to you, whom we have come to love and whose leadership we take pleasure in following. Our work is for the great Bishop of our souls whose favor we trust we have and whose Kingdom we love to advance.

The year's history has not been without its shadows. The death angel has entered three parsonage homes to bear away beloved children.

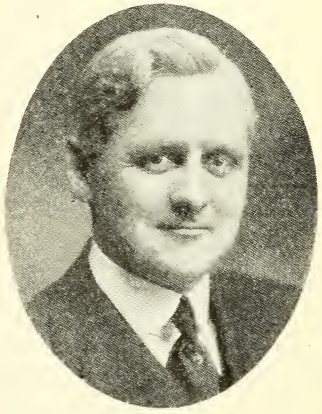
On December 15 a precious child came to and was taken from the embrace of Rev. and Mrs. O. J. Beardsley.

Two lovely daughters of the parsonage homes have been called to the heavenly City.

During the last week of November Miss Ruby Loveless, the nineteen-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Loveless, of Russiaville, was stricken with appendicitis, and although the best of surgical attention was given, she died on the 28th day of November. Her funeral was largely attended by both ministers and laymen, and her body was laid to rest in the beautiful Russiaville cemetery.

On February 20 the sad news reached us of the death of Maris Estaline, the only daughter of Rev. Eli and Sarah A. Fisher. Maris was attending college in preparation for a larger field of usefulness on behalf of others, when the "flu" infection laid hold upon her. She was sick but a short time. Her funeral was held February 23. More than a hundred former friends from Santa Fe drove twenty-eight miles across rough country roads on a bitter cold day that they might bid her silent form a sad farewell.

These pastors gave evidence of a Christian fortitude that was beautiful to behold. The gospel they had preached to others was their stay and comfort as they laid in the tomb the forms of lovely daughters grown to womanhood in queenly beauty.



F. A. Hall

Changes of Appointments.—Soon after Annual Conference Rev. B. H. Friend, a local preacher, who had been appointed to the Gilead charge, for good reasons asked to be released of his appointment, announcing that it was his purpose to make further preparation for the ministry. He is now attending college, making further preparation for his life work. Later the charge was supplied by Rev. K. P. Wesche, a member of the Missouri Conference.

In the early part of the Conference year, Upland Church, being left without a pastor by the transfer of their pastor, asked for Rev. H. R. Carson, our pastor at Atlanta. Bishop Leete filled this vacancy by placing Rev. F. J. Robins in the Atlanta charge.

September 1, Rev. Charles Thornburg asked to be excused from the Center charge that he might enter DePauw University, and Rev. Lilburn E. Adkins, a local preacher, was secured to finish the year. We are sorry to note that a break in health has made it necessary for Brother Thornburg to discontinue his school work. He is in a military hospital. He was one of our most capable men, and we earnestly hope for his recovery.

Rev. A. R. Sanks, desiring to continue his work in school, was excused from the Galveston charge in late September, and Rev. John R. Kirby, a member of the Kansas Conference, was secured as pastor. He has been acceptably caring for the work and the people are unanimous in requesting his return.

Rev. C. R. Stockinger, pastor of Kempton charge, received earnest word from the Board of Foreign Missions asking that he attend a seminary in preparation for missionary work. Rev. Will L. Hall, of the Kentucky Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was appointed to the charge and Rev. Stockinger is now in school.

Rev. Clifton Pond having an opportunity for seminary work in Iliff was excused from his work in May, and the Scircleville Church was placed with Kempton.

On November 1, Rev. H. A. Clugston, being in poor health, and advised by his physician that he should give all his time to an effort to regain his vitality, was excused from his work. The charge has been cared for during the last two months by Rev. Fred M. Stone.

We have done our best to care for the charges with this itinerating list of pastors, but we would like to see a year when each pastor in the district assigned to his field would stay with the charge until the Annual Conference convened.

Evangelism.—We have been glad in Logansport District to enter heartily into the State-wide simultaneous evangelistic campaign, with each pastor acting, with the co-operation of a brother pastor, as his own evangelist. It has not been an easy season in evangelism. The public has too long looked for and expected the spectacular, but God has blessed the work, and both ministers and laymen have approved of the plan. It will be a happy day for the church when every pastor feels that he is God's evangelist, and that no other man can do his work.

The pastors report 803 conversions. Persons received from probation, 462. This does not include the classes of probationers received into the church on Easter Day. To this should be added 596 received from other churches and by certificates. A total of 1,058—yet with some of our churches reporting a decrease in church membership occasioned by the paring down of membership rolls, the advance for the district will be small.

Religious Education.—We will not discuss specifically the Sunday school and Epworth League with their great service in education, though they have done a great work; the Epworth League Institute alone providing a week of schooling for over two hundred young people. Much of the educational activity is under the direction and inspiration of the Epworth League.

Bible-study classes, mission classes, stewardship classes and reading circles under the direction of the pastor have been much in evidence.

The Lincoln Church, under the good leadership of the pastor, Rev. A. E. Bunner, has been transformed by the education brought in a reading circle.

The Logansport District people still read the Western Christian Advocate. There are 1,308 subscribers. Grace Church leads with 253.

A new valuable addition to the educational activity of the church is the Vacational Daily Bible School. Three of the churches of the district held schools during the past year; the results were so highly commendable that they will be repeated this year and a number of new schools will be in session.

Centenary.—The finances of the district have been greatly disturbed by railroad strikes. In six of the large churches of the district a large number of the members have been out of work.

It has been the policy of the men of Logansport District to make a strenuous effort to bring all benevolences up in full. This we have persistently worked at during the Centenary period.

In our last report Santa Fe, Grace Church, Macy, Peru, Tipton, Hobbs and Aroma, Center, Market Street, Sharpsville, Sheridan and Russiaville, 100 per cent; Goldsmith and Arcadia were near the 100 per cent line.

It is encouraging that a good number of our churches are meeting their debt as a debt of honor and sacred obligation. If all churches were so faithful to the trust there would have been no necessity for the "Emergency, I Will Maintain Fund." To help in the emergency and keep our missionaries in the field, Logansport District received her apportionment of $8,000.

In the raising of this money we were greatly inspired by the leadership of Bishop Leete. His generous offer of $500 set a pace that was followed in sacrificial giving by both pastors and laymen. We were glad to report on checking-up day $11,173, or 139 plus per cent. The credit for the victory must be placed very largely in the fine co-operation of both pastors and laymen.

Building and Improvement.—Wheatland Street, Logansport, has purchased a new parsonage building at a cost of $5,000. This is the second step in a program that will result in the building of a new church.

Lincoln charge is now provided with a parsonage.

Cicero church has built a new parsonage during the past year at a cost of $2,300.

Rev. G. W. Martin, of the Boxley charge, has led the people of both Salem and Ekin churches to the accomplishment of a very commendable work. Salem Church has been raised four and one-half feet, new basement finished, furnace installed and the entire building redecorated. The cost was $3,400. Ekin Church has been raised four feet, a new Sunday-school room built on, a basement placed under the entire church, a Delco lighting system installed, and the entire building redecorated and refurnished. The cost was $6,700. Both buildings were rededicated by the district superintendent. Rev. W. W. Martin, D.D., was master of ceremonies in refinancing the Ekin Church. In both instances the money was fully provided for.

The Russiaville Church has spent $1,200 in redecorating and in finishing and refurnishing the basement.

Sharpsville Church has put $1,000 in improvements.

Main Street, Kokomo, has placed $4,000 in a new heating plant.

Lincoln has paid $700 in church improvement.

Onward, on the New Waverly charge, have placed their new church under roof and will complete the building this summer.

Other charges of the district that have spent from one to five hundred dollars in improvements are: Broadway, Santa Fe, Arcadia, Center, Macy, Atlanta, Goldsmith, Peru, Twelve-Mile, Gilead and Beamer.

Old Debts.—Churches have been courageously facing the task of clearing property of old debts. Sheridan Church, that has so constantly been meeting her obligations in payment on her new building, while she has been keeping her Centenary paid in full, found it necessary to refinance some $17,000 of debt that was unprovided for. Bishop Leete gave his good help one Sunday and the church has the matter now well in hand, $6,000 having been paid during the year.

Greentown has paid $2,000 and is now out of debt.

Beamer Chapel Church has commenced work on an old debt that has for years been an embarrassment—they have paid $500, and will this year pay off the debt.

Other churches paying from $642 to $200 of old obligations are Peru, Arcadia, Walton, Anoka and Galveston.

A total of $22,926 has been spent on improvement and $11,969 on old debt. This money has not been withheld from the Centenary. The churches that are paying their Centenary are also making improvements and paying debts. My impression is that the lack of paying to the Lord's work is not usually shortage of money but willingness to spend or give it for Kingdom interests.

Area Building.—We are glad to note that this worthy project is receiving the increasing sympathetic attention of the church. A number of leading laymen have accepted membership on the area and county finance committees. Recently one of our men received a bequest for $1,000 to be devoted to this interest.

When all of our great Indiana Area recognizes its high privilege in pressing forward to the realization of this worthy vision, we shall rejoice and wonder why we did not accomplish the goodly task at an earlier date, and we shall hail the happy day that taught Indiana Methodism the advantage of securing a home in our capital city that would be central, commodious and the worthy pride of every Methodist of Indiana.

Retired Ministers.—A number of God's noble men who have served the church well in the years ago, and who deserve needed rest, reside within the bounds of Logansport District. Rev. C. E. Disbro, the only man now living who was a member of the Conference when he entered in 1859, is one of these honored men. He is a resident of this city and attending this session. Forty-two years ago, when the present superintendent was but a child not yet in school, Rev. Disbro was the "presiding elder" of this district.

These reverent veterans are with us in all the work of the church. There are some brakemen on the district train but the retired ministers are not of that class—they are firemen, conductors and engineers—always favorable to the forward program of the church.

Final.—In closing this, my fourth report as superintendent, permit me, Bishop, to pay this tribute to the pastors of Logansport District: There is no more devoted, industrious, painstaking, hard-working, God-fearing company of pastors to be found anywhere. Whatever of God's work you may see accomplished in the district this year, give the pastors the credit. They have labored hard and at much self-sacrifice. We wish that more had been accomplished. We are sure, in many instances, the failure of work cannot be laid at the door of the preachers. Numbers of pastors would, if they had the money, pay the Centenary themselves rather than to see it deficient.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

To report the year's work of a district is a delicate and intensive thing. You undertake to harmonize delicacy and intensity and you have a job on your hands. What shall we put in and what shall we leave out. The delicacy is in elimination. Crowd into the limited space what should be and only the high spots can be touched, and as you proceed the intensity increases, and before you reach the goal you are about sure to be arrested for exceeding the speed limit. But we will proceed to set down in order some of the doings of the year.

Sickness and Deaths.—I doubt if history has recorded more general sickness throughout the district than during the past winter. The parsonage homes, as well as those of our people, have been sorely afflicted. The most serious case has been that of Rev. T. M. Hill, our pastor at Albany. His health has completely failed and for four months he has been incapacitated for any service whatever. The fine spirit and loyalty of his people would be hard to excel. Instead of accepting his resignation, which was offered, they unanimously voted Brother Hill a vacation until Conference, paid his full salary and kept the pulpit supplied from Sunday to Sunday.

One wife and two Conference widows have died during the year. Mrs. Caroline Patterson, widow of the late Rev. A. M. Patterson, answered the call of the Master from the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged, July 31, at the ripe age of seventy-nine years. She, with her husband, gave themselves to work of the ministry in 1874, contributing many active years to their chosen calling. Mrs. May Boston, widow of the late William S. Boston, came to her crowning at her home in Pendleton, October 2. She was a rare Christian character. Seldom do we find one so true, faithful and loyal to all the interests of the Kingdom. February 22, Barbara Ann McDaniel, wife of Rev. J. W. McDaniel, our oldest retired Conference member, slipped peacefully away to her eternal rest from the family home in Normal City.

James A. Beatty

Changes.—The district, with forty-one charges, each had a pastor assigned by Bishop Leete at the close of the Conference at Elkhart, with the exception of Noblesville Circuit and Grace Church, Anderson. After a lapse of six weeks Rev. O. E. Johnson was transferred from from the Wyoming State Conference and stationed at Grace Church, Anderson. After trying us for seven months, and promotions were rather slow, he transferred to Kansas, where he hoped airplanes would be in general use.

The last week in May Rev. John H. Collier, living in Indianapolis, was secured for Noblesville Circuit and has completed the year with a good degree of success. About the middle of September Rev. L. C. McFarlin, assigned to the Alexandria Circuit, was released and transferred to the North-East Ohio Conference, and Rev. A. G. Cragun, a local preacher living at Westfield, was secured to complete the year. About the same time Rev. W. O. Moulton was released from the Matthews charge and transferred to the Detroit Conference, and Rev. K. E. Maynard was taken from the Perkinsville charge and placed at Matthews, where he took up school work along with the pastorate. This left Perkinsville without a pastor and Rev. E. P. Shrock, of Arcadia, has completed the year. The contagion becoming somewhat epidemic, Rev. Loren Ross gave up the work on the New Burlington charge and Rev. Mitchell Martin, a local preacher of Muncie, has completed the year.

Building and Improvements.—The building program of the district is not nearly as extensive as last year. Bishop Leete gave us his valuable service and dedicated the new church at Florida, December 10. This is a beautiful country church of the stucco type, having six rooms including the auditorium and basement, with art-glass windows, built at a cost of $7,500. The people at Florida will never forget that day and are living in the sweet memories of the fine way the services were conducted.

This is the second church that Rev. Owen A. Knox has to his credit on this charge in two years. That which looked like the impossible in both places has become a reality.

Mt. Carmel, on the Shideler charge, has a new church in the process of building, but the winter weather halted them midway toward completion. We shall hope to dedicate this church in the early summer. The cost will be between seven and eight thousand dollars.

Madison Street, Muncie, has her building program launched for a fine new church to cost fifty-five or sixty thousand dollars. They have raised and paid out this year for building a tabernacle and wrecking their old church, $1,550. Rev. John H. Runkle, the pastor, is leading this church into a larger field of usefulness.

First Church, Alexandria, has revamped and redecorated their church throughout at a cost of $1,600. It has the appearance of a new church. Bishop Leete was present and preached the reopening sermon.

Fortville has raised $1,300 for installing a new heating-plant and redecorating their church.

Grace Church, Hartford City, has deferred building for a brief time and has repaired and redecorated at a cost of $2,650. When you hear Rev. L. W. Kemper's report you will know this church is traveling forward with rapid pace.

Other churches have made improvements of $500 and above as follows: DeSoto, $718; Carmel, $535; Westfield, $500; Avondale, Muncie, $500; Mt. Zion, Daleville charge, $500, and sixteen other churches with smaller amounts, totaling $28,366.

Debts Paid.—Debts on church and parsonage properties have been considerably reduced this year. The following charges have paid several thousand dollars on their obligations: Noble Street, Anderson, $3,000; Indiana Avenue, $910; Avondale, Muncie, $1,600; Normal City, $766; Gaston, $400, and Summitville Circuit, $425. Total, $8,501.

Finances.—Notwithstanding the general business depression and discouraging financial conditions, especially in the rural districts, nearly every church will meet its ministerial claims in full. Against all expectation ministerial support has been increased $2,500 this year and next year promises an additional increase.

The Centenary.—I am hopeful about our Centenary. The district contributed $5,170 on the "I Will Maintain Fund," and reports that are now in, though quite incomplete, indicate a splendid advance over last year on the regular quota. One good woman on the Shideler charge, who has been induced to tithe her income through the preaching of her pastor, was so delighted with it she concluded to tithe her property. She called her pastor in and signed an after-death bond of $500 for the Preachers' Aid Society and an estate note of $500 which she expects to pay as soon as she sells her property. The pastor offered a prayer of thanksgiving and she became so happy before the amen was reached she was on her feet praising the Lord. May her kind be greatly increased! A large per cent of the charges are reporting a good increase over last year. The following charges have already reported their quotas in full or above: Albany, First Church; Noble Street, Anderson; Hartford City, High Street, Normal City, Muncie and Selma. First Church, Anderson, led the district last year with 131 per cent of her quota and this year $1,442 above last. Selma was a close second with $135 above last year.

District Meetings.—Four regular district meetings were held. First the pastors and district stewards convened May 4, at Ingalls. In October the pastors and district stewards were called together at Lapel in the interest of the Centenary and other benevolences. This was followed by a two nights' program in all the churches of the district. The Evangelistic and Settlement Day Conference was held at Muncie in December, in the Normal City Church. The District Conference chose Noble Street, Anderson, which was held March 6 and 7. The programs of all these meetings were of very high order, especially the District Conference, where Drs. Lovejoy and Ehnes, of Chicago, and Bishop Leete, of Indianapolis, were among the speakers.

Evangelism.—The pastors and churches have emphasized the chief business of the church—the evangelization of the world. The pastors who held their meetings early have had the advantage of better health conditions and better weather. We joined in the State-wide evangelistic campaign. With two exceptions, pastors conducted their own meetings with an exchange of help or the assistance of some neighboring pastors or an evangelistic singer. On account of so much sickness and bad country roads the results are not what we expected. The pastors report 1,106 conversions and reclamations, 1,125 accessions with, with an increase of 897, but some of the charges did not pull even, which will cut the net increase to 769. We shall hope that the ingathering on Easter Sunday will more than overcome the slump.

The Preachers' Aid Society Campaign.—This campaign has not progressed as rapidly as was expected. Dr. R. A. Morrison has had the help of Rev. J. C. Graham, and quite a number of the pastors have been called in for a few days at a time. While we have been greatly hindered by following a succession of other drives and financial campaigns, we now have pledged $123,097, and many splendid prospects and territory not yet canvassed to warrant us in believing that our goal of $150,000 will be reached.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

The forty-four pastors of the Richmond District have all been faithful, true men. What might be said of any one could practically be said of all. They have been hospitable in their homes and brotherly in their relations with one another and with me, their district superintendent. They know how to do teamwork and have the spirit and will to do it.

Personal Mention.—It will be remembered that Brother E. T. Clark, pastor in Centerville, was stricken with pneumonia soon after his arrival at the seat of the last session of the North Indiana Conference, held in Elkhart. The attack was so severe that from the first there seemed to be little hope of recovery and, in spite of medical skill and the care of good friends, this royal soul went home to God soon after the reading of the appointments by Bishop Leete. The funeral services were conducted in the Centerville Church, in charge of the district superintendent. The body was laid to rest in Urbana, Ohio. Brother Clark was a good, successful minister of Jesus Christ.

Somerville Light

Near the close of the Conference year—January 7—another of God's noblemen, in the ranks of the ministry, of Richmond District, was called from toil and cross-bearing to crowning. I refer to Brother Millard Pell, for thirty-one years a faithful member of this body and at the time of his death pastor in Pennville. Brother Pell passed away in the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, after a very serious and complicated operation. The funeral services were conducted in Angola, where he had enjoyed with the people a very successful four-year pastorate. The services, directed by Pastor L. G. Jacobs, were participated in by W. W. Martin, superintendent of the Fort Wayne District; D. H. Guild, of Garrett; H. C. Harman, Wayne Street, Fort Wayne; O. A. Trabue, Methodist Hospital, Fort Wayne; L. W. Kemper, Hartford City; R. R. Detweiler, Kendallville; V. L. Clear, Fremont, and the superintendent of the Richmond District. Mrs. Pell will reside in Angola.

In June, the month of roses in Indiana, the divine Gardener tenderly plucked a beautiful rosebud found in the Markleville parsonage. Mary Frances, the beautiful child of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Armstrong, was taken up to adorn the Garden of God. Brother and Sister Armstrong smile through their tears and thank the Good Giver for the touch of that fragrant life. In my report of 1920 I referred to the joy coming into the lives and home of Rev. and Mrs. Weber Roahrig by the advent of a sweet boy. That boy was an increasing joy to his parents, and upon his future, as they planned it, high hopes were built. In late August these hopes were shattered by diphtheria and Paul's beautiful spirit slipped away to Jesus. These fond parents know where Paul is and they know the way.

Births.—Four of the parsonage homes have been made glad by the advent of sweet babies. J. Harvey Brown and wife, of Charlottesville; J. A. Land and wife, of Farmland; J. H. and Mrs. James, of Fountain City, and J. W. Vickery and wife, of Philadelphia, are the highly favored parents.

Baptisms.—The district superintendent had the pleasure and honor of administering holy baptism to the babes of four parsonage homes, viz.: Martha Louise Yeomans, Dunkirk; Thoburn Wesley Anderson, Spiceland; E. J. Roahrig, Portland, and John Wesley Vickery, Philadelphia.

Changes.—Soon after the death of Brother E. T. Clark the vacancy in Centerville was filled by the appointment of C. W. Chadwick, who has done a remarkable piece of work in the complete rebuilding of this historic church. A new coat of high-grade brick, new, modern front, new tower, art-glass windows, new pews and the rearrangement of the entire interior. It is now a beautiful, commodious building and will meet the needs of Centerville Methodism for decades.

In early September Orville W. French was released from Centenary, New Castle, and Frank McDaniels was taken from Boston and placed in charge. He has done excellent work and is the making of a good, efficient Methodist preacher.

The following changes were made in caring for Pennville, made vacant by the death of Brother Pell: H. L. Adams, from McCordsville to Pennville; W. O. Power, from Winchester Circuit to McCordsville, and C. A. Mitchell from Maxwell to Winchester Circuit. Maxwell was supplied until Conference by O. O. Brown, the brother of J. Harvey Brown, of Charlottesville.

Retired Ministers.—The six retired ministers of this district, with their families, have been blessed with fairly good health and, as opportunity afforded, have put forth earnest efforts to serve the church they love so dearly. Drs. M. S. Marble and F. G. Browne, of Indianapolis; Brothers R. T. Laslie, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky; J. O. Bills, of Lewisville; L. P. Pfeifer, of Greenfield, and Sylvester Billheimer, of Hagerstown, compose this worthy and honored group.

Marriage.—On the beautiful summer day of September 6, at three o'clock in the First Methodist Church, Winchester, the pastor, Rev. O. T. Martin, and the district superintendent joined in marriage the Rev. R. Lowell Wilson, pastor of the Lewisville charge, and Miss Agnes Ross, of Winchester. This very capable couple have done good work in Lewisville and their return for another year is earnestly desired.

District Meetings.—The district meetings of pastors and the various organizations were all marked with unusual interest. I have never seen a finer spirit of good fellowship in such meetings. The pastors and district stewards met in Grace Church, Richmond, May 3. This was a great day—forty-three of the forty-five pastors present; two excused for funerals. A large per cent of the district stewards and scores of laymen from the various charges, a total attendance of three hundred. Dr. J. A. Beatty, superintendent of the Muncie District, responded to a call and gave us an inspiring address on "The Goals for 1922." His presence was a great blessing to the occasion.

A well-attended, enthusiastic Woman's Home Missionary Society convention was held in Hagerstown June 16 and 17.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society convention was held in Grace Church, Richmond, in October. Both organizations have done aggressive work and will report a gain over former years. The Foreign Society is represented one very charge in the district but four. The District Epworth League Convention was held in Modoc June 20-22. Again the chapters pledged the support of Dr. Lowry, their medical missionary in China. The Annual Booth Festival, in charge of the Epworth League, was held in New Castle, Labor Day, September 4. The response was enthusiastic. The attendance was large and the offerings in supplies and cash more than doubled those of last year.

Fifty-five from this district attended the Wawasee Institute in July.

Junior League Coaching Conference.—Under the direction of the District Junior League Superintendent, Mrs. S. H. Caylor, and the District President of the Senior League, Rev. C. S. Miller, a Junior League coaching conference was held in Hagerstown, March 8. Miss Emma Robinson, of the Chicago office, was present and rendered valuable service.

District Settlement Day.—An all-day meeting was held in Redkey and was pronounced, by the unusually large number of pastors and laymen in attendance, the best meeting of this kind they had ever attended.

District Conference.—The District Conference was held in Hagerstown, March 7 and 8. Attendance, program and reports, combined with entertainment on the part of the local church and the spirit of co-operation and good fellowship, conspired to make these two days red-letter days. No minister or layman failed to perform the task assigned. Miss Pauline Place, who went to Japan under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of this district, spoke for the district organizations, and Miss Laura Bertch, district president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, gave the address for that society. Dr. Luther E. Lovejoy, secretary of Christian Stewardship of the Committee on Conservation and Advance; Dr. C. M. Barton, apportionment secretary of the same board, and our own Bishop Frederick D. Leete were the speakers from without the district. Four men were licensed to preach, and two were recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial.

Building and Improvements.—The beautiful and commodious church in Union City has finally been completed, with full basement and modern heating system. In addition the entire structure has been renewed within and without. The district superintendent had the pleasure of joining the pastor, Rev. E. M. Dunbar, in the reopening services, September 3. Brother Dunbar managed the finances with the same skill with which he carries forward a revival campaign, and was able to meet all demands and reopen free from debt. The total cost of improvement was $10,300.

September 10 the new $35,000 church in McCordsville was dedicated. Bishop Leete cheerfully responded to call for the morning service and won all hearts by his masterful sermon, brotherly spirit and the skill manifest in handling the finances under very untoward conditions.

The church in Maxwell, C. A. Mitchell, pastor, was dedicated October 8. This church, begun during last Conference year, is a good, substantial structure, erected under great difficulties, by a hard-working pastor and a loyal, self-sacrificing people. This church, with the parsonage built six years ago, gives this congregation exceptionally good rural church property.

As stated elsewhere, Centerville, C. W. Chadwick, pastor, will be ready for the reopening of their completely rebuilt church soon after Conference adjourns. The entire cost of this improvement is about $16,000.

The trustees of First Church, New Castle, John F. Edwards, pastor, recently purchased, at a cost of $8,000, an elegant modern home for parsonage purposes. Pastor and wife are settled in this beautiful home. The old parsonage, near the church, will be used as a parish house.

Farmland Circuit, J. A. Land, pastor, purchased a good parsonage property at a cost of $2,500.

Farmland Station, E. E. Franklin, pastor, improved the church by putting in a fully equipped, modern basement, painting and decorating at a cost of $4,000.

Middleboro, L. F. Ulmer, pastor, put a $3,000 improvement on the church, consisting of basement, painting, etc. This is now a well-built country church. The parsonage is at Greenfield.

Other improvements from $800 down to $25 give us a total of $70,583 for the year. This is a gain of $23,895 over last year. We have church property valued at $1,004,750; parsonage property at $138,450; total, $1,143,200.

The following charges have paid on old indebtedness: Hagerstown, $4,800; Grace Church, Richmond, $7,000; Union City, $4,500; Portland, $3000; Winchester, Debts Paid.—The following charges have paid on old indebtedness: Hagerstown, $4,800; Grace Church, Richmond, $7,000; Union City, $4,500; Portland, $3,000; Winchester, $1,600; Third Church, Richmond, $1,500; Lynn, $1,200; Whitewater, $700; Cambridge City, $535; Kennard, $500; Lewisville, $345, and numerous smaller amounts totaling altogether $38,379.

Salary Statement.—During the past eight years pastor's salaries, including house rent, have advanced from $37,715 to $84,826, a gain of $47,111; cash salaries from $32,509 to $76,800, a gain of $44,291. The advance for all salaries during the same period has been $56,162. A few years ago this would have been considered a remarkable showing, but under present conditions, in many instances, salaries are not sufficient to meet increased cost of living. Ministers are not seeking riches; if they were, none of them would have chosen the calling of the ministry. But they know that it means ruin and everlasting embarrassment if they are not able to make the income of each year cover legitimate and absolutely necessary expenses. No man can blame them for wanting what is necessary to provide food and suitable raiment and an additional margin for equipment for an efficient ministry. It is placing an unnecessary strain upon men's devotion to ask them to labor for less than will meet their common needs.

Church Literature.—We have 1,047 subscribers to the Western Christian Advocate, one for every fourteen members. Would it not be great to see the membership of this district gathered once a week, in groups of fourteen, eagerly feeding on the provender dished up in this superb religious literature cafe. We report a substantial increase in Sunday-school periodicals. Christian stewardship literature is distributed and read as never before; missionary literature has been sent broadcast throughout the district and the end is not yet.

Departmental Work.—The Sunday schools are better organized and furnished than ever before. A very encouraging feature is the effort on the part of the small-town and country-side churches to provide more adequate housing. Dr. Davids, of the Board of Sunday Schools, responded to the call of the Richmond schools and gave a full week to each school with great profit to the workers. It is to be hoped that this work may be carried to other centers in the district and ultimately to every charge. Methodist literature is used in all schools and all are organized into missionary societies. They raised $8,070 for missions. This does not include a large Christmas offering, the exact amount of which we have not in hand.

Both the Junior and Senior Epworth League chapters are moving upward—"Day by day, in every way, they are growing better." The Ladies' Aid Societies have surpassed any former year—better organized and doing better work. They report for this year over $25,000.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have advanced their goals, increased their pledges, organized many new auxiliaries and have raised $9,745.

Evangelism and Church Membership.—In spite of bad roads and untoward health conditions, many of the pastors made an honest, earnest effort to carry into effect the Indianapolis Area program of evangelism, and even in the face of these discouraging conditions not a few were able to secure fair successes. Indeed, I am glad to say that where pastors really got under the burden, either alone with their churches or in exchanges with fellow pastors, gratifying results attended their efforts. More and more must the spiritual notion that the pastor-preacher is called to be an evangelist in his own field of labor, and on his own account be impressed upon the minds of our candidates for the ministry. And more and more must the people in our churches come to see that hearty co-operation with pastors, who carry a burden for the souls in their parishes, will bring more lasting results for Kingdom building than the fitful, spectacular efforts of the average traveling evangelist and his party. Yes, yes. The advance reports of the pastors show 1,529 conversions, with 1,242 accessions to the churches. The net membership reported is 15,404, a gain of 753 over last year. No charge failed to report conversions and accessions. Grace Church, Richmond, reports the largest number of conversions—199. Here Pastor A. H. Backus was in charge, assisted by Dr. Kendall, of the Board of Church Extension; Redkey, B. H. Franklin, pastor, 147; First Church, Richmond, R. W. Stoakes, pastor, 111. Rev. Stoakes did his own preaching, and had he not been forced to his bed by the "flu" we would undoubtedly be able to report the greatest revival in the history of this church. Union City, E. M. Dunbar, pastor, 110. Here the expected happened—this pastor always has revivals. The Union City Church is entirely changed by this old-time work of grace. Third Church, Richmond, E. L. Gates, pastor, 100. Here again the pastor was his own evangelist. The number converted and received into membership does not begin to represent this work; the entire community has been stirred and a new future is before this church. Portland Circuit, Weber Roahrig, pastor, 98. This is a rugged four-point circuit in Jay County. In two years this wide-awake young preacher has conducted his own revival services twice around this large circuit and has seen 280 conversions, and every department of church life greatly quickened. The people are now ready for a division of the work and are willing to support two pastors. Whitewater, L. F. Ulmer, pastor, 95. Brother Ulmer, usually his own evangelist, has made this thriving two-point charge out of two churches, ready to be closed and abandoned eight years ago. This is a striking illustration of what constructive New Testament evangelism will do. Lynn, W. E. Hamilton, pastor, 63. Here Brother A. F. Hogan, of Cambridge City, was the evangelist. Lynn has a history, but has not known revivals for decades. It became the happy privilege of this energetic pastor-evangelist to introduce the old town and the old church to the most alive and worth-while thing in their midst in years. This was done in a community where the daily routine of religious life consisted in quiet musings on the virtue and high value of birthright privileges, and the beauty, glory and sure security of gradual growth. Brother Hogan also had 60 conversions in his own church, which has doubled its membership during his four-year pastorate. New Castle, John F. Edwards, pastor, 63. Brother Edwards also conducted his own campaign and now has the foundation laid for better results during the next Conference year. . Millgrove, Mack Crider, pastor, 63. This work has saved a church in a fine farming community to Methodism. Dublin, A. A. Turner, pastor, 48. Pastor H. L. Adams was the evangelist. The old town was stirred by this campaign and the Methodist church put to the fore. Winchester, O. T. Martin, pastor, 45. Pastor E. M. Dunbar did the preaching in this meeting. Pastor Martin's determined effort to lead this church into more friendly relations with Methodist evangelism has borne much fruit. The Farmland Church, under the leadership of the pastor, E. E. Franklin, conducted a good campaign for souls—40 professed conversions. Other faithful pastors conducted meetings of great helpfulness—conversions ranging in numbers from 32 to 5.

Centenary and Other Benevolences.—The "I Will Maintain" apportionment to this district was $6,800; the receipts were $7,200. Every charge in the district met its quota. This happening was celebrated October 23, in First Church, Richmond, by the observance of District Chest Day. Luncheon was served and after-dinner speeches made by the district division captains. Every pastor, with large numbers of laymen, was present and at the appointed time deposited his quota in the chest. Dr. W. J. Dunham, of Cincinnati, Ohio, gave the closing address. At the last Conference session we were able, in spite of a slump as compared with the former year, to report our district quota for the three years overpaid by a margin of about $16,000. This year the pastor's annual pre-Conference reports indicate that our quota for the entire period ending April 1, 1923, is fully met—$308,384. Twenty-one charges paid as much as last year, fifteen made good advance and eight paid a very little less. We have been able to take up more than half of the sag of last year. The Conference benevolences have been paid as per apportionment.

The Area Programs and Projects.—The busy progressive pastors of this district, with not a few thoughtful laymen, are watching with keen interest the unfoldment of the plans of Bishop Leete and the Area Council. I am sure the hearty support of Richmond District Methodism can be safely pledged to this aggressive, far-visioned leader at the head of the Indianapolis area.

Concluding Word.—My heart turns at the end, as at the beginning of this report, to the fine, faithful, fair-minded, clean-lived pastors with whom I have been permitted to toil during the year. In every remembrance of them as I have gone about by day and night, often heavy hearted and at times not a little discouraged, I have thanked God for them and thought of these words, suggested by their devoted lives:

The minister has found that service consists
In heart-blood, in the constant going out
Of virtue from him, in derision's shout,
The world's indifference and stinging frosts.
As Christ came ministering, his servant comes.
Enough for him if, like his Lord, he girds
Himself to lowly tasks, and hears the words,
"Do ye as I have done." For in the slums
As on the boulevard, we track the feet
Of Him who toiled up Calvary to win
The world. Then let us count it shame and sin
If we with halting step our duties greet.
Let life be hard, its work without return,
Your candle trim and to the socket burn.

WABASH DISTRICT.

William B. Freeland, District Superintendent.

In the days of chivalry the creation of a knight was accompanied by solemn confession and a midnight vigil in a church structure. It was followed by the eucharist. The new knight offered his sword on the altar, to signify his devotion to the church and his determination to lead a holy life. Then he took an oath to protect the distressed, maintain the right against might, and never by word or deed to stain his character as a knight or as a Christian. The ordination of men to the ministry of the Word of God is as romantic as that ancient ceremony; the task of our brotherhood is as epic in its significance. It is a larger knighthood to which we are devoted. Our purposes are more enlightened, and our objects of pursuit are far greater. With only one life to devote, we take larger risks, pursue more ardently and contend more gallantly than any other theater of endeavor can ever witness.

Certain changes will be noted in the list of our pastors. One month after Conference, Maurice E. Barrett was released from Upland to accept a church at Brockton, Massachusetts. Herman R. Carson was transferred to Upland to continue the work of Brother Barrett. He has done well, and revealed splendid efficiency. June 10 F. J. Robins was released from Mt. Etna charge to assume charge at Atlanta, which had been made vacant by the removal of Brother Carson. After a serious delay, Loy C. Laney took up the work at Mt. Etna and carried it on successfully. July 1 David S. Jones was compelled to seek a more friendly climate for his daughter, and he was released to go to Colorado. Brother L. M. Krider filled the vacancy at Fairmount until J. M. Jordan was secured to assume it. Fairmount people have been well served by Brother Jordan. H. P. Young was changed from Roanoke Circuit to Roll, August 15, and J. Clayton Smith completed the work of the year. Lancaster charge was vacated by A. L. Myers at the middle of the year. W. L. Horst has cared for the work until the close of the year. At the same time R. V. Johnson became a member of the staff of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. Harley A. Davis, of the Indiana Conference, at once entered upon the work at Warren, and has well pleased the people there.

W. B. Freeland

We have suffered no deaths in our parsonage homes. Our pastors and their families have been well, uniformly. The generous stork has made numerous visits to the preachers' families. July 4 came Esther Lenore Sweeney to gladden the home of C. B. Sweeney and wife at Mentone. On July 23 Mary Elizabeth Moore took up her abode with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moore at Jonesboro. The Uniondale parsonage occupied by A. W. Pugh and wife, welcomed Miriam June Pugh on August 13. At Upland, August 20, Frederick Leete began his tutelage for the episcopacy under H. R. Carson and wife. A Hallowe'en visitor was entertained at the Etna parsonage by Frank S. Young and wife. They call him Clarence Ronald. It is said that there was a time when all people were named Smith, and as soon as any one of them became guilty of an overt act the name was changed to something else. In pristine innocence a little girl, born January 5, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clayton Smith, Roanoke Circuit, bears the name of Eula Maxine Smith. Six days later Stanley Martin Smith came to the home of C. E. Smith and wife in the parsonage of the Roanoke Station. All generations should bless the name of Pocahontas for saving the life of the American ancestor of the Smiths. Paul B. LaVere, pastor at Liberty Mills, and Edith Marian Williams were married on June 21, at the home of the bride, in Marion. September 22 Clarence F. French was married to Ethel E. Graves, at Watertown, New York.

Our district meetings have been the best of any within the range of my experience. A good organization of the pastors was formed at Wabash, First Church, May 3. They entered upon the work of the year with consecration and commendable devotion. The Woman's Home Missionary Convention was held May 4 and 5, at Columbia City. Doctor Harvey DeBra and Miss Muriel Day delivered helpful addresses. The Epworth League Convention at Lafontaine, June 20 and 21, enrolled 525 Leaguers. It looked like a State convention. Dr. T. J. Bassett, of Monticello, and Dr. O. W. Fifer, of Indianapolis, inspired the large assembly by their able, earnest words. The fall rallies were marked by fine co-operation of the pastors. The group captains and their teams went to almost every church within the district. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Convention met at Mentone on October 19 and 20, with Miss Edith Bell as principal speaker. On November 1 and 2 the Huntington Church entertained the Conference meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Convention. Rev. E. E. Higley gave an excellent illustrated lecture, and Bishop Leete gave one of his able addresses. At First Church, Wabash, December 5, Settlement

Day was observed. Bert DeWitt Beck, of South Bend, was our speaker, and much interest was shown in the evangelistic plans which he explained. We made trial of a novel plan in our work February 5-8. Brothers Hollopeter and Homer went with me to hold a series of group meetings with pastors and select laymen. We discussed: "Our Church Membership," "The Every-Member Canvass," and "The Benevolences of the Church." Forty-two charges were reached, and good results were obtained. Finally came the District Conference, at Jonesboro, March 5 and 6. The program was unusually strong. Luther E. Lovejoy, Morris W. Ehnes, George Richmond Grose, Harry Andrews King and Bishop Leete made a series of addresses which were up to the standard of an Annual Conference program. An unusual sight was witnessed when twenty-three young people were licensed as local preachers. They came from all parts of the district, and many were from the high schools. May we hope that the time of our greatest scarcity of preachers is passing, and that our young men shall come to our Conference in larger numbers! May the sons of the prophets increase!

At the first of the year the following places increased the salaries: Akron, $100; Andrews, $250; Columbia City, $200; Marion, First Church, $400; Mentone, $100; Lafontaine, $100; Roanoke, $300; Van Buren, $100. The salaries will be paid almost without exception in full. For the next year the reports are that North Manchester and Uniondale will increase their support $200 each.

Churubusco reports $1,000 paid on indebtedness. Wabash Street Church, Wabash, has paid $800. Van Buren paid off the parsonage debt of $2,000 and pays her Centenary in full. Other churches have paid smaller sums also. Grace Church, Marion, has completed a basement and secured the funds to pay the expense. Swayzee, Upland, Markle, Gas City and Columbia City have also made substantial improvements on their church property at outlays of $400 to $800 each, while Jonesboro has spent $1,200 in adding to the beauty and convenience of their building. The new church project for Marion, First Church, moves on with gratifying progress. The outside work is almost complete, and work on the interior is being rapidly forwarded. It is a massive brick structure with stone trimmings, and combines beauty with utility. There are sixty-five rooms of various sizes. The Sunday-school apartments will be well adapted to departmental work; the fine auditorium will seat about fourteen hundred. The enterprise is being financed as though by the hand of a wizard. More than $200,000 in good notes will meet the cost of the enterprise. You will want to see this structure one year hence, and if you will accept the very gracious invitation of the people of that church, as well as that of many citizens of Marion, you will have the pleasure of holding the session of the North Indiana Annual Conference there in 1924. Doctor Ellsworth will accord you a warm welcome.

The benevolent offerings have been well cared for by our pastors. Bishop Hughes was with us in a great meeting at Wabash, First Church, on the evening of September 18, to launch the "I Will Maintain Fund." We contributed $5,000 to the fund. Although we have been pained by repudiation of valid obligations, there are many praiseworthy examples of members who gladly contribute their gifts to carry the Cross into new fields. Some of the pastors are laying broad and deep foundations in Christian giving by promoting stewardship teachings and enrolling tithers. This will solve the whole question when once our people are willing to render to God his own.

Much of the work of the present-day church is done through the societies which are auxiliary to the church. In the Wabash District we have thirty-four Epworth Leagues, with a membership of 1,348 members. There are sixteen Junior Leagues which number 585 members. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society maintains thirty-one auxiliaries with a membership of 1,340. To these must be added sixty-one young people's and children's societies which number 1,261 members. The Woman's Home Missionary Societies are nineteen, and they have 848 members. There are also sixteen organizations for young people and children in their work. These societies add 460 more to their number. There are sixty-six Ladies' Aid Societies. There are seventy-seven churches which maintain preaching services. All but two of these have supported Sunday schools throughout the year. Two of our church buildings have had occasional services only.

The evangelistic work of our district has been carried on almost exclusively by the pastors. From the time of the first announcement of the State-wide evangelistic campaign our people and their pastors have been interested and have shown a desire to co-operate. In the district and group meetings the subject has been discussed.

Our preachers have selected their coadjutors and have gone to the task with hope and courage. I wish that I could say that our laity as a whole had been more interested. We have an alarming number of members who give little evidence of spiritual life, and such members do not believe in revivals. They seem to found their objections upon certain extravagances which are not common to our churches, but which have passed out of use. In fact, they were never in use except in certain circles. It is time that our ungodly and worldly members should seek the experience and practices of righteousness. At least they should cease to look upon the church as merely a human organization for social ends, and should understand its spiritual mission. The times are fraught with danger to our people lest we lose the consciousness of sinfulness and it be written of us that there is no fear of God before our eyes. In our meetings we have had sixteen charges which report more than twenty conversions each: Lincolnville and Lafontaine, 21 each; Marion, Ninth Street, 22; Marion, Home Park, 24; South Whitley and Highland Avenue, 25 each; Roanoke, 26; Roanoke Circuit, 28; Marion (Grace Church) and Akron, 35 each; Lagro, 41; Sweetser, 45; Andrews, 50; Uniondale, 62, and Fairmount, 67. The total number of conversions so far is given at about eight hundred, although the report is incomplete. Many of the pastors held Easter week services. They have spent 1,518 days in revival and evangelistic work in this simultaneous period. This is an average of thirty-three days for each one.

The year has brought much responsibility in the work of various boards and committees. We have an increasing number of organizations. I have attended the meetings of these boards and committees to the best of my ability. The Cabinet, the State Council, the Memorial Home, the Preachers' Aid Society, the Fort Wayne Hospital, the Epworth League Institute, the Wesley Foundations at Purdue and Indiana University have all had their interests for me, and have taxed my strength and consumed my time. I have held 161 Quarterly Conferences, made about fifteen addresses and preached 204 times. To the heavenly Father, who has given me strength, I give thanks.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY COMMITTEE REPORT

"There is but one book." Recognizing the truth of this statement, we, your Committee on American Bible Society, submit the following:

We wish to commend the American Bible Society for their generous distribution of this Book, upon which the faith of our fathers was constructed and through which our great civilization has been advanced.

And it is our belief that upon this Book the ultimate civilization must be builded.

We rejoice in the fact that in many places the Bible is once again finding its way into the public school system.

We desire to register our protest against any and all forces attempting to minimize or destroy its teachings.

We further recommend that our church continue its support of this worthy orgainzation.

BOARD OF CONTROL DEACONESS WORK.

Recognizing the splendid ministry of the deaconess in church and institutional life, and the value of that ministry among the constructive forces of the kingdom of God, we pledge ourselves to constant interest in the deaconess movement, and by public utterance and private conversation to press the claims of this phase of the Kingdom's business upon the young women and the parents of our congregations.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Periodic literature has apparently become the chief source of general information. In this present age the battle of the pages has become almost as acute as the struggle at arms. The comic section in the daily press and the glaring headlines of tragedy and scandal have gone all too far toward crowding out the spirit and purpose of informative literature.

From the great printing presses of The Methodist Book Concern there comes a constant stream of the purest literature now available. Among our periodicals that deserve special mention are: The Western Christian Advocate, The Epworth Herald, The Methodist Review, The Area Herald, the Sunday School literature, The Voice of Temperance and Public Morals, The Missionary News, and a great quantity of special pamphlets and tracts concerning the Centenary Movement and the World Service Program, and to the making of good books there is no end.

We recommend that Methodist literature be given precedence in all our homes over other religious publications, and we insist that the regular use of our literature will be helpful in the development of strong Christian character.

CONSERVATION AND ADVANCE, AND THE WORLD SERVICE PROGRAM.

It was a great day for Methodism when our leaders assembled in the city of Buffalo stirred by the appalling need of a stricken world, moved by far vision and daring faith, committed our church to the unprecedented obligation and seemingly impossible task of our Centenary. And now at the end of the four years, when we see the faith and daring transmitted into the mightiest Christian achievement and deepest sacrificial giving seen since the Apostolic age, we feel it is eminently befitting that we voice our keen and profound appreciation of the statesmanlike and substantial work done by the Board of Conservation and Advance under the able leadership of our own Dr. R. J. Wade. The work of this board, together with that of our superintendents, district and general, our missionary secretaries, and editors, has not been surpassed by the leadership of the church in any age of its history.

Their comprehensive grasp of the needs of the entire field at home and overseas; their stirring portrayal of those needs in the most luminous and challenging publicity ever furnished the church; their complete, systematic, efficient, and nation-wide organization of all the forces, factors, and agencies of the church, and their own patient, persistent, courageous, indomitable labors have stimulated, united, inspired, and held the whole church steadily at this gigantic undertaking until the prophetic vision which four years ago seemed far off, has been builded into pulsing, growing, Christian triumph.

We, your committee, therefore beg most earnestly to recommend, first, that we, as a Conference, accept it as our immediate and imperative duty to make good, by the end of the Centenary period, our allotment and obligation for the entire five years.

As contributing aids to this work we recommend further:

(a) That we pledge our renewed and unqualified loyalty to the Board of Conservation and Advance, our lawfully constituted agent, in their work and leadership.

(b) That a renewed educational campaign be instituted for the entire church so that we may see afresh the needs of the fields committed to our care and church, and may realize our ability under God as a church to meet those needs.

(c) That we most heartily endorse the resolution submitted to us when it says that, "We believe a more systematic stewardship campaign with the tithe as its objective will place the work of the World's Service Program upon its best basis in conscience and practice." We commend the Christian Stewardship Guild as a practical and efficient plan of organization for inspirational, educational, and progressive work.

(d) That the World's Service Program for education and enlistment be presented to our churches in the months of January and February of 1924.

We are now in sight of the goal. The impossible can soon be achieved. Let no false signals deceive or confuse us. The Methodist heart and conscience said

"yes" to the call of God and the cry of the world, and they meant it. They would rather follow us to victory and honor than to defeat and shame. God, who has helped us thus far, will make our strength sufficient to our year, and bring us off more than conquerors. Looking unto him, who is the author and finisher of our Centenary faith, we Methodists must run with diligence and energy the whole race and complete this strategic and God-appointed task. This will be the very best preparation and likewise the chief inspiration for the World Service Program for to-morrow.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, have examined the journals submitted and found such evidences of neatness, thought, and care on the part of the Secretary of each of the six districts as to merit the commendation of the Conference.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

Methodism has always fostered Christian education. Born in a great university, she has never lost the intellectual vision of her great founder, John Wesley. In the pioneer days of our own country our forefathers laid the foundation of schools that have become a mighty factor in our country's development.

We now have several universities and seminaries and many colleges that rank high in educational circles. In these days of intellectual ferment and social unrest, it is absolutely necessary that we emphasize more and more the need of the moral and spiritual content of our educational processes. We insist on our colleges employing teachers whose characters are beyond reproach, and whose lives stand as a positive force for vital Christian experience.

General Board.

Our Board of Education is doing splendid work in promoting the cause of Christian education. Higher intellectual standards are being required all the time. Our institutions of learning are keeping in the vanguard of the great educational movements of the times.

Our board is promoting education in the needy and neglected sections of our great republic. Schools in the Southland are being subsidized by liberal grants of aid. Weaker schools are being encouraged and strengthened by this great educational promotional agency of our church.

Through the Children's Day Fund the board is assisting by loans over two thousand students each year to get an education. Many of these young people would not be able to go to school at all were it not for the aid they thus receive. We commend the Board of Education of our church to the people and ask for their continued support.

Wesleyan Foundation.

Whereas, there are over two thousand Methodist students in the two State universities, Indiana and Purdue, which should have the Christian influence of our church during this important period when their mental attitudes are being fixed, which need is being met by the excellent work of the Wesleyan Foundation.

We therefore commend it most highly, and cite the following as undeniable proof of its merit:

In Purdue this last year there were one thousand and fourteen Methodist students, of whom two hundred and fifty-eight affiliated with the Methodist Church of the Wesleyan Foundation of Purdue. Seventeen have been baptized; two hundred and fifty have enrolled in the Epworth League; more than five hundred have been enrolled in the Men's Bible Class and Women's Bible Class. Further, in order to care for their recreation and social life, a social program is given each Friday evening for the students, and once a month the Sunday evening service is taken over by them. Also, the foreign students have their meeting in the social room and are cultured by its spirit. Certainly this is worthy of support by the church of Christ, since from this large group of young people will come the leaders of to-morrow.

We therefore commend the work and urge its loyal support by this Conference.

Theological Seminaries.

As Methodists, we believe that mental discipline is essential to the highest efficiency. Since the State requires that young people entering the various professions should have special training for their work, it logically follows that the church should be no less diligent in preparing candidates for a ministry in which they are to be "All things to all men."

Therefore, we maintain four great theological seminaries: Drew, Boston, Garrett, and Iliff, where sound doctrine and Biblical teaching is ever kept in the foreground, and Christ is presented as the only foundation for permanent good.

These institutions are now engaged in campaigns for added equipment to meet the ever-increasing demand, and Methodists everywhere are asked to meet this challenge. We also urge all young men and women looking toward work in the ministry, either at home or abroad, to avail themselves of the opportunities of these four seminaries, and call the attention of our young women to our college at Jacksonville, Illinois, which is equally high grade.

DePauw University.

We are pleased to hear of the continued and growing success of our great Indiana Methodist School, DePauw University. The reports that come to our Conference record the embarrassment of overcrowding and the limitation of facilities to care for the present large student body and to open the opportunity for the many young people of our church who have a right to look to our own college for their higher education. Because of the great needs facing the administration for more building and equipment and enlarged teaching force, we heartily record our endorsement of the campaign for $1,500,000 soon to be launched in the State. The fact that the General Education Board agree again to give a large share of this amount is a guarantee of the high standards maintained in the school.

We are pleased to take note of the splendid years Dr. C. U. Wade has given to the school, and as his home Conference we desire to express to him our heartiest thanks for the loyal work he has done. The passing of Dr. Hilary Asbury Gobin brings a pang to every student who has passed through the school within the last four years.. He was one of God's noblemen, and the fragrance of his life will remain as a benediction to the school and Indiana Methodism. We are glad to have Dr. Geo. R. Grose as a member of our body, and we are with him in his efforts to maintain a high type of scholarship coupled with a loyalty to the doctrines of our church. DePauw should often be in our prayer that real piety may pervade the lives of her students.

We believe the contemplated uniting of College Avenue and Locust Street Churches will redound to an increased facility for caring for the religious life of the student body. We are hopeful that a preacher of outstanding ability may head the united church, and he should have ample assistance that the college constituency may be adequately cared for.

We desire to nominate W. H. Charles and Hardin Rhodes to succeed themselves as trustees for a period of three years. We also nominate Charles H. Smith as a visitor from our Conference for a period of three years.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Far-seeing statesmen as well as churchmen to-day are agreed that the foundation of the world's troubles is our "human problems." We have learned how to master practically every relationship of life except our human relationships. How to get along with one another still remains the unsolved riddle of the ages. And this is true largely because the spirit of man remains unchanged. Diplomacy, treaty, and conference cannot solve our human problems because they are powerless to change the spirit of man. Only the gospel of Christ can change the human heart, out of which spring all the ills to which our age has fallen heir. Therefore the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ remains the paramount duty of the church at this hour.

Our duty becomes more insistent still when we look upon the nations about us. Europe goes on conferring, but never coming to a knowledge of the fundamental principles that underlie a lasting peace. Her spirit has not been duly purged by the fires through which she has passed. Methodism's responsibility to Europe in times of peace can be no less binding than in times of war. And besides, Russia, long abused and oppressed, now stretches forth a hand for help that we dare not deny.

Japan, in spite of her marvelous progress, still gropes in darkness, not knowing whither she is tending. In the words of one of her own leading statesmen, "Japan at present is like a sea into which hundreds of currents of Oriental and Occidental thought have poured, and not having effected a fusion, are raging, wildly tossing, warring, roaring." The old religions and old morals have lost their grip on the people and nothing has yet arisen to take their places. Every large town has its segregated quarters, and concubinage is still practiced, even if in defiance of the law. A recent census in Tokyo University reveals that out of four thousand six hundred and eighteen students, Shintoism claims nine; Buddhism, forty-nine; Christianity, sixty; while Atheism and Agnosticism claim no less than four thousand five hundred. In the face of facts like these surely our duty to Japan is clear.

China, whose civilization was old when Abraham went out of Ur of the Chaldees to found a kingdom, presents an unparalleled opportunity to the church in America to-day. It took all the missionaries in China ten years to win the first two thousand converts. Last year one of our Methodist Conferences, the North China, baptized fourteen thousand, and this number was limited solely by the facilities at our disposal for teaching and training them. The old idea of the "Unchanging East" has given way beneath the impact of Western civilization. Everything is to-day in a state of flux. It was Napoleon who said, "When China awakes she will shake the world." This all depends on what sort of ideas she is awakened with. Make China Christian and the Orient is safe. But so long as thirty-six millions of her people remain unclaimed as the responsibility of any Christianizing agency, and so long as more than fifteen hundred of her walled cities remain without a single Christian worker, we dare not slacken our pace in our efforts to help her.

India's millions, too, are on the march. They await the coming of the light of the Son of God to lead them out of their dark ways. South America—land of opportunity—just to the south of us, is asking for the paths that have led to American greatness. The Philippines are responding to our touch as if by magic. Korea is still being swept by a mighty revival impulse. These constitute for us the unabated challenge of Almighty God.

The North Indiana Conference has never been slow to respond to the call of the heroic, and in this hour of unparalleled world opportunity she does not dare to look back. We have never learned how to beat a retreat, and we shall not begin to learn now. The great Centenary movement taught us how to dare and do on a far larger scale than we ever dreamed that we could. This gives us courage to face the future.

Therefore we, your Committee on Foreign Missions, desire to heartily commend the new World Service Program and to express the conviction that this grand, new challenge when it is presented to the church shall elicit the same whole-hearted response on the part of the North Indiana Conference that the Centenary challenge has met.

HOSPITALS.

Your Committee on Hospitals submits the following report: The work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the field of hospital endeavor is more than an enterprise of the commercial character. It is an expression of the love of God interesting the All-Father in the physical welfare of his children. Our houses of mercy, therefore, open to us a great field of opportunity for spiritual ministrations to a multitude who are face to face with eternity.

Our Indiana system of hospitals more and more commends itself as one of the wisest undertakings of our Methodism. Under our Board of Hospital and Deaconess Work we are operating four hospitals: one at Indianapolis, one at Fort Wayne, one at Gary, and another at Princeton. Our institution at Indianapolis is not only the largest in the State, but as well the largest Methodist hospital in the world. Our hospital at Princeton ministers almost wholly to that community with its twenty-five beds, and is a great source of blessing. The institution at Gary is likewise a source of satisfaction and an arm of power. The management of these hospitals is efficient and satisfactory.

Fort Wayne.

The particular interest of this Conference naturally centers in the hospital at Fort Wayne. Like the others, it is under the management of our State Association, the local administration being in the hands of a Board of Directors whose administration is increasingly satisfactory under the direction of Dr. M. F. Steele, whose service is highly appreciated by the board. This institution, situated in the very heart of progress and occupying a property at the very center of Fort Wayne, the second city of the State, a city enjoying a growth and making developments unparalleled by any other Indiana city, faces a most inspiring opportunity. Plans for enlargement are now in process of being launched which will make this institution one of the best-equipped hospitals in the Central West.

We heartily approve the determination of the management to inaugurate a campaign for additional funds to be used in securing enlarged equipment and accommodation.

Our Nurses' Training School.

A Nurses' Training School is an essential to every hospital. Here opportunity is afforded for devoted and earnest young women to secure an education for this profession. Our training school at Fort Wayne is under the direction of a competent faculty whose services give to all students the most liberal advantage in opportunity.

The Nurses' Home is in charge of a matron who gives all her time to the girls in providing for their welfare. Religious services are held regularly, some of the services being under the direction of our nurses themselves.

We commend this school to our young women seeking a preparation for this profession, and we urge our pastors to bring to the attention of their worthy young ladies its splendid opportunity, and to place in the hands of the hospital authorities names with whom it will be worth while to correspond.

The Booth Festival.

The observance of Booth Festival on Labor Day each year is growing to be a rallying point for our Epworth League chapters in propagating an interest in our hospital. The results last Labor Day were remarkable. The contributions of the Goshen, Wabash, and Fort Wayne Districts to the hospital at Fort Wayne aggregated a total in cash and supplies of nearly $9,000. The offerings of the Logansport, Richmond, and Muncie Districts are given to the hospital at Indianapolis, but figures of last year are not in the hands of the committee.

We endorse the plans of the Board of Directors, which provide that the cash offerings of our Leagues in the observance of Booth Festival, not designated to pay church apportionments for the hospital, shall be set aside to the credit of the district making them, an annuity of 6% being computed thereon, and administered to help in hospital service young people who, being deemed worthy, may be designated by a properly-appointed district authority to receive such help.

We urge all our Epworth League to organize thoroughly for the observance of Booth Festival next Labor Day, Goshen, Fort Wayne, and Wabash Districts sending their gifts to Fort Wayne, and Richmond, Logansport, and Muncie Districts to Indianapolis.

The White Cross.

The White Cross has been found to be a source of help in our hospital endeavor wherever tried. We recommend its adoption by this Conference. It is a roll call undertaken in all our churches annually, after the manner of Red Cross Roll Call, so familiar in the times of the Great War.

We urge our pastors to set aside the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving as the day when they shall preach upon "The Ministry of Healing," presenting hospital work and giving their people an opportunity to sign the cards for the roll call, registering their presence by the gift of $1 and receiving both the badge and the token to hang in their homes indicating such payment.

The money thus secured shall be set aside as a fund supporting our free bed work, and shall be divided as are the offerings from the Booth Festival. The management of this roll call shall be in the hands of O. A. Trabue, the Committee on Hospitals co-operating.

We recognize the efficient work of O. A. Trabue, appointed last year to the field secretaryship of Fort Wayne Hospital, and appreciate his services in promoting the interests of the hospital in a financial way, and also his spiritual service to the guests and members of the hospital force of workers. The Conference requests his reappointment.

The Per Capita Assessment.

For years the churches have been assessed a per capita amount of ten cents per member. We recommend the continuance of this assessment for this, the last year of the Centenary, as an Annual Conference benevolence to be paid from the Centenary collections.

We call attention, however, to the fact that this amount of ten cents per member was fixed upon years ago, when it meant much more in financial assistance to the hospital. In view of the fact that plans are being made for a post-Centenary endeavor for world service, and that our Annual Conference benevolences will be included in that enterprise, we give notice as a Conference that it is our judgment that a reasonable quota for the hospital in the post-Centenary campaign shall be fifteen cents per member. Of course, this does not affect the payments to be made to the hospital in the Conference year upon which we are now entering.

Hospital Chaplaincy.

We repeat our conviction expressed last year, that our hospitals should support a chaplain as a member of their regular force, and we urge the adoption of this policy at the earliest possible moment. We urge also that all our rooms be provided with Bibles, to the end that in these times when the opportunity is particularly hopeful, patients may have easy access to the Word of God.

Nominations for Directors.

Our newly-adopted constitution provides for the selection of a board of twenty-one directors, to administer affairs at Fort Wayne, fourteen of whom are to be chosen by this Conference and seven by the Board of Hospitals and Deaconess Work. We therefore nominate to serve on this board representing the Conference the following: E. W. Yergens, H. B. Heller, H. C. Harmon, Mrs. Charles Kendrick, Mrs. F. Y. Grose, W. B. Freeland, A. G. Neal, J. W. Potter, Abe Ackerman, F. G. Green, A. A. Berry, Arthur F. Hall, Albert S. Bond, Robt. Fustal.

We nominate to succeed to vacancies on the Board of Hospital and Deaconess Home of the State of Indiana, for three years, J. C. White and A. B. Cline.

JOHN C. WHITE, Chairman,
F. E. DAY, Secretary,
P. E. GREENWALT,

"MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED."

Your Committee on the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged make the following report: During the year new buildings costing $43,000 have been built and paid for. The grounds are now being improved by trees, shrubbery, and in many other ways.

The family has been increased to sixty-two, and they are a happy, contented lot. Applications for membership are constantly coming in for admittance to the home and many loyal friends are increasing. Our pastors should be alert to inform our people about this great institution of our church and the North Indiana Conference and urge our people to visit the home.

We recommend the continuance of the per capita assessment of ten cents per member for the Sustaining Fund for next year.

We recommend that C. U. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, W. W. Martin, and C. W. Beecher be re-elected as trustees for a term of three years.

We desire to express our appreciation to B. S. Hollopeter for the great work accomplished during the year, and for his faithful service to this very important work; we also request the Bishop to appoint Bro. Hollopeter as Corresponding Secretary for another year.

NEGRO EDUCATION.

For fifty-five years the Board of Education for Negroes (formerly known as Freedman's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church) has done great work, so that to-day there are 350,000 colored members, 3,500 churches, and over 2,000 ministers. Our nineteen schools, with their 425 teachers and 6,597 students, are supplying the increasing number of pastors, teachers, and other types of Christian leaders.

One of the largest opportunities in world evangelism lies in the 12,000,000 of the Negro race within our borders. Their evangelization is highly essential to the safety and perpetuity of our Government. This opportunity, seriously met, aids materially in reaching the 100,000,000 of black people in Africa.

The General Conference authorizes and directs that each pastor observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary in February. We recommend the observance of this day and the use of the program and literature of our board.

We further recommend the prayerful and careful presentation of this subject before the Sunday school, the Epworth League, and social gatherings, and the distribution of literature among the membership. Free literature may be secured from the Secretary of the board, 420 Plum Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Let us lend our best effort to increase the already efficient work of our Board of Education for Negroes in carrying out God's program for the colored race.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

As ministers of the church of Jesus Christ, there are certain signs of the times which we note with increasing hope.

The awakening moral sense in public sentiment which drives from the stage or from the exchange alike men who violate the higher sanctities and common decencies of life; the growing recognition by the press of the country of the obligation to create public opinion in support of law and order, and favorable to education, religion, and the other great human interests; the rising tide of fraternity and cooperation in the various religious bodies of the country; the frank recognition by publicists, statesmen, and business leaders alike of the fact that sound morality based upon true religion is the only foundation of permanent prosperity or a stable social order—these are heartening signs of the times.

We view with alarm the prevailing disregard of law and the lack of respect for regularly constituted authority in society. The widely-organized attempt to discredit, to evade or to violate any law, whether State or Federal, civil or social, that does not accord with individual judgment or personal interest, must be unsparingly rebuked and courageously resisted.

We call upon all schools and churches, upon the press, and all leaders of public opinion to uphold the authority of the courts of justice and to inculcate respect for law.

We deplore and condemn the selfish strife between industrial workers and employers which issues in ruthless destruction of property; in denial to the workers of the rightful reward of their labor, and imposes intolerable burdens upon the public.

We declare our disapproval of dishonoring the national Memorial Day by commercialized sports and prostituting the Christian day of rest and worship into a day of unrestrained amusement and pleasure.

We call upon our National Government to take such steps at once as will promote the establishment of an international court for the adjudication of disputes among the nations, and no longer to evade her rightful share of responsibility in establishing and in maintaining the peace of the world.

We solemnly warn the people of our country against any and all organizations and movements that tend to incite class, racial, or religious strife and antagonisms or to contravene the regularly constituted processes of law and authority. We appeal to all of every class, of every race, and of every creed to put away class strifes, racial prejudices, and religious intolerance and to dare to act as if we truly believed that God has made of one blood all the people of the earth.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Whereas, Article 5, Paragraph 472, of the Discipline, specifically states that the Conference Board of Sunday Schools "shall take the place of the Annual Conference Committee on Sunday Schools," we, the duly appointed Annual Conference Sunday School Committee, after consultation with the Bishop and the District Superintendents, wish to submit the following resolutions:

1. That it is the opinion of this committee that the wise direction of our Sunday-school specialists from the Sunday School Board might appreciably increase the efficiency of our Sunday schools throughout the Conference.

2. That we recommend that the Sunday School Committee be dismissed and that the cabinet appoint a board made up of a minister and a layman from each district, and that these, together with the District Superintendents, constitute the Sunday School Board.

3. That we recommend that this board communicate with the Sunday School Board in Chicago for the working out of a co-ordinated program in our Conference during the coming year.

Committee:

R. R. Detweiler,
E. A. Bunner,
J. J. Fred,
H. R. Carson,

SUSTENTATION.

We, the Committee on Sustentation, recommend that the Annual Conference raise the sum of $5,600 to be applied as follows: $1,200 to the Wesley Foundation at Purdue University, and $4,400 to be distributed among the districts according to their needs.

Herbert Boase,
M. B. Graham,
E. S. Riley.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

We, the Committee on Temperance, respectfully submit the following report:

We rejoice over the continued success of the prohibition cause. Prohibition has reduced crime, lessened poverty, increased bank and savings deposits, along with the number of depositors, added to the material well-being of our people, increased the percentage of enrollment in our schools and colleges, depopulated many of our jails, reduced commitments to penal institutions, added to the sum total of human happiness, and has in many other ways been a blessing to mankind and strengthened the kingdom of Jesus Christ on earth.

We note, though, and call the attention of our pastors and people to the fact that this warfare is not yet over. Efforts hitherto unparalleled are to be made next year for the election of a Congress, of State Legislative Assemblies and of Federal and State administrations favorable to the nullification of the letter and spirit of the Eighteenth Amendment by securing laws for the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beer and wine. This is a challenge on the part of the foes of good government which must be accepted by Christian people and met patriotically in the fear of God. Again, conspiracies, nation-wide and international, as well as local and State-wide in their character, exist for the trampling of prohibition laws under foot. The most hardened and determined professional criminals, experts in the school of crime, are seeking to make out of the Constitution of the United States a mere scrap of paper and to bring this nation once again under the reign of John Barleycorn. To resist successfully these attempts at prohibition law nullification, it is necessary for all citizens to elect honest and fearless officials for the enforcement of the law and to render them every aid and sympathy possible in performing their arduous and ofttimes dangerous responsibilities. Further, we call attention to the smuggling of liquors into our country with the connivance of citizens of other nations. The hovering of rum fleets just beyond the three-mile limit along our coasts has become an international scandal and must by all means be broken up. If foreign governments will not themselves break up this business carried on under their own flags, then we believe that the great power of this Government should take such steps as are necessary to prevent such discourtesies to our nation and to our nation's Constitution by these international pro-liquor conspirators.

We express our deep appreciation of the fine work being done by the Anti-Saloon League, and also by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and we pledge to these organizations or movements the loyal and patriotic support of our pastors and people. We further express our unqualified approval of the battle for a dry world, believing that prohibition in other lands will simplify the problems of enforcement here, as well as bring the same blessings to these other lands that prohibition has brought to America.

To Major Roy A. Haynes, the Federal Prohibition Commissioner; to Bert Morgan, the Prohibition Director for Indiana, and to his forces; to the Attorney-General of the State, and to all faithful law enforcement officials, we express our unstinted praise for the faithful and efficient work which they are doing and pledge them our loyal co-operation. We further express our commendation of the Indiana Legislature for passing, and the Governor of the State for signing four additional dry measures which put more teeth into the enforcement laws, believing that by the addition of these acts enforcement in Indiana will be better in the future than it has been in the past.

We express our appreciation of the work being done by our own Board of Prohibition, Temperance, and Public Morals.

We are grateful for the full, forceful, and timely exposition of our church law on the divorce question as given by Bishop Leete in open Conference. Since our law is already slightly more liberal than the teaching of the New Testament, we urge that a rigid and full enforcement of our law is the only concession we dare make in the face of this increasing evil, which is undermining the home.

For trustees of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League we nominate W. W. Martin and O. A. Trabue.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. M. GUILD, C. M. VAWTER,
E. D. IMLER, J. M. STEWART,
CHAS. J. EVERSON, J. B. SPARLING.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Greetings to Bishop Leete, Members and Friends of the Woman's Home Missionary Society:

We are glad to give you a brief summary of the contribution the Woman's Home Missionary Society has made toward the continuous "forward movement" of Methodism in North Indiana Conference. The statistical sheet in the Year Book will give, as far as figures can, an itemized account of the work that has really been accomplished.

We appreciate in a measure the present responsibility of American citizenship, and we recognize in the Woman's Home Missionary Society a great opportunity for expression of the real spirit of Christian helpfulness through its various avenues of service to mankind under our flag. We are diligently working to enlist every woman in Methodism in this worthy task.

Our goals are placed high each year, and through systematic effort and good team-work a steady advance has been made, closing each year with gains.

An effective organization must be intelligent, and must know all they can about the work in which they are engaged. There is just one way to obtain this up-to-date information, and that is to follow closely the study course and read Woman's Home Missions. To this we attribute largely our growth and strength.

The influence from our training schools flow far and wide. The scope and variety of our work makes possible the training of young women as nurses, deaconesses, missionaries, church secretaries, directors of religious education, social service workers, domestic science teachers, and kindergartners. We commend these schools to the girls of North Indiana Conference wishing training for Christian service. Scholarships may be had by communicating with the Conference officers. Three splendid workers went into the field this last year from our Conference. Mrs. Ida M. Dodds, as Assistant Superintendent Geo. O. Robinson Orphanage, Porto Rico; Mrs. Nora R. Richards, Superintendent Deaconess Home, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Miss Elizabeth Neff, teacher at Bennett Academy in Mathiston, Mississippi.

Our organizations number 302, with a membership of 11,783. Our Young People and Children's Departments are great assets and receive care and oversight from their devoted leaders.

On April 1 this year the settlement work among the foreign people of Fort Wayne, which had previously been under the direction of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of that city, was taken over by the Woman's Home Missionary Society of North Indiana Conference. Miss Mary Metts is the missionary in charge, and her work of real Christian Americanization is very much appreciated by the people served. We most earnestly solicit the hearty interest and support of all.

We want to pay tribute here to the helpful assistance and interest rendered by our District Superintendents and pastors throughout the Conference.

We enter the new Conference year with a spirit of optimism, happy for the victories of the past, trustful for the future as we help in carrying forward the work of making inseparable the cross of Christ and Old Glory.

Mrs. E. F. Hilkert, Corresponding Secretary.

(c) SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

CABINET RESOLUTIONS.

We, the District Superintendents of the North Indiana Conference, desire to express our high appreciation of Bishop Frederick D. Leete. His faithful interest in all churches and ministers; his desire to seek the highest welfare of all the pastors; his keen insight into the needs of churches, gives great value to his services in cabinet work. We earnestly request that he be reassigned to preside over this Conference next year.

Somerville Light, W. B. Freeland,
W. W. Martin, James A. Beatty,
A. G. Neal, Freeland A. Hall.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee on Resolutions desires to express the appreciation of the whole Conference for the leadership, businesslike methods, Christian courtesy, and fine spirit of our beloved friend and brother, Bishop Frederick D. Leete, D.D., of this area. His presence among us is a constant challenge to the loyalty and consecration of every Methodist in the great State of Indiana.

We record our thanks to Bishop E. L. Waldorf, D.D., of the Wichita area, for his magnificent address.

The addresses of Dr. R. J. Wade and his co-workers, touching the World Service Program of the church, were both informing and inspiring and brought us face to face with the problems and opportunities of the church.

The lecture by the Rev. Dr. Geo. R. Stuart, the prince of platform men in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was unique and timely and greatly enjoyed by the immense throng.

We are deeply grateful to our thoughtful and genial host, the Rev. Dr. W. T. Arnold, and to his great church for their cordiality and grace in serving the Conference. Our every need has been anticipated, and nothing left undone that would minister to our comfort.

We also appreciate the fine spirit of co-operation and courtesy on the part of the other churches of Kokomo.

We desire to thank the banks, the daily press, the Masonic fraternity, the city officials, and any others who in any way have assisted us in the work of the Conference and thus made our stay pleasant as well as profitable during the sessions of this our eightieth gathering.

We desire to commend the Older Boys' Conference movement. No more inspiring and prophetic scene was ever witnessed in our Conference than the gathering of 100 fine young men in our midst, pledging themselves to loyalty to Christ and the church.

H. C. Harman, Chairman.

OLDER METHODIST BOYS' CONFERENCE.

The first annual Older Methodist Boys' Conference was held Friday and Saturday, April 6 and 7, in connection with the session of the North Indiana Annual Conference. Warren I. Powell, of the Board of Sunday Schools, and Evans Worthley, representing the Commission on Life Service, assisted in putting on a program which was inspiring and educational. Dr. Charles H. Smith represented the Annual Conference in planning and carrying out the program. Dr. W. T. Arnold, pastor of Grace Church, where the sessions of the Annual Conference were held, and other pastors rendered splendid service. The sessions were held in the Christian Church, the Young Men's Christian Association building and Grace Church.

One of the most inspiring scenes ever witnessed in a session of the North Indiana Conference was when the boys, numbering more than one hundred, marched into Grace Church, singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers," led by two boys bearing the Christian flag and the Stars and Stripes. The joint session with the Annual Conference, with the bishop addressing both bodies, was the climax of the occasion.

Such subjects as "The Boy's Church," "The Boy's Dad," "The Boy's Preacher," "What the Church Expects of the Boy," "What the Home Expects of the Boy," "Our Church and Its Program" and "Vocational Direction" were presented. Frequent opportunities were given the boys for self-expression.

A permanent organization was effected, with John Deater, Kokomo, president; John Puckett, Kokomo, vice-president; Robert Anderson, Marion, secretary, and Robert Crouch, Fortville, treasurer. Over one hundred pastoral charges were represented by the one hundred and seventeen boys who registered. The next annual meeting will be held at Marion, in connection with the Annual Conference.

certain corporations formed or intended to be formed under other laws and whose legal existence has expired, repealing all laws in conflict therewith and specifically repealing the act approved March 6, 1891, and published on page 81 of the acts of the General Assembly for that year, and declaring an emergency," which act has been read and considered at this meeting;

WHEREAS, Said Act of the General Assembly will take effect after the Acts of said session of the General Assembly shall have been published and circulated in all the counties of Indiana and the proclamation of the governor of Indiana in reference thereto shall have been issued and published;

WHEREAS, By Section 7 of said Act of the General Assembly it is provided in substance that (1) every corporation, association, or board of relief of a kind provided for and permitted by Section 1 of said Act and which has assumed to act as a corporation under any of the laws of Indiana is declared to be legally incorporated, and may continue to function and to exist under said Act, and (2) every corporation, de jure or de facto, heretofore formed or intended to be formed under any of the laws of Indiana, whether such law has been repealed or not, and of a kind provided for and permitted by Section 1 of said Act, and the legal period of whose existence may have expired, but which has assumed to continue to act as a corporation, and whose members have continued to elect officers from time to time, and whose governing body has assumed to continue to exercise corporate powers, is revived and declared to be a legal corporation, and its corporate existence shall be and is declared to be continued under said Act, without reorganization, upon filing with the Secretary of State of Indiana, in duplicate, of a certificate, signed and acknowledged by its acting president and secretary, which certificate shall contain certain information required by said Section 7 of said Act and after its filing and approval shall be substituted for and shall be treated as and shall be and become the articles of incorporation of such corporation as revived and as it shall continue to exist under said Act; and

WHEREAS, This Society, viz., The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is of a kind provided for and permitted by Section 1 of said Act; and

WHEREAS, The legal period of the existence of this Society may have expired, but this Society at all times has assumed to continue to act as a corporation, and its members have continued to elect officers from time to time, and its governing body, to wit: its Board of Trustees, has assumed to continue to exercise corporate powers; and

WHEREAS, This Society holds a large amount of property and is engaged in an important work, and it is desirable that it shall continue to exist and function as a corporation under said Act; now therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the intention of this Society, viz., The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to be governed by and exercise the privileges granted in said above-mentioned and entitled Act; be it further

Resolved, That the president and secretary of this Society be and they hereby are authorized and instructed to prepare, execute and file with the Secretary of State of Indiana the certificate required to be filed by Section 7 of said above-mentioned and entitled Act after the Acts of said 1923 session of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana shall have been published and circulated in all the counties of Indiana, and the proclamation of the governor of Indiana in reference thereto shall have been issued and published.

(XI) Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

W T. Arnold, Chairman; U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

1. Students will secure the proper volume of Directions and Helps from the Book Concern. Read with care.

2. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, or colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examinations.

3. Certificates with grades are now required of college and seminary graduates, as well as all others.

4. Similar certificates may be received in all studies not biblical or theological, from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

5. Certificates must contain the grades either in numerals or letters. If letters, then also their respective values.

6. Certificates containing grades designated credit shall be received, and grades entered the same as the average of those grades contained in the certificate.

7. All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or at the seat of the Annual Conference, on Tuesday of Conference week. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of a student in the mission field. No examinations after Tuesday.

8. All written work on "books to be studied" must be given to the examiner by the time of the Mid-year Institute. All written work on "books to be read" will be due on or before March first. No credits after these respective dates.

9. Students will note Rules 7, 8, and 13, especially as to time limit. "No" means no. Remember it.

10. One paper of approximately one thousand words will be required on a chapter of each book; this applies to both lists: "books to be studied" and "books to be read." Students will select chapter.

11. Those who had "The Art of Writing English" will take "How to Study" of the old course. Examiner, Wright.

12. Those who have been conditioned in a study which is not in the new course will consult the examiner as to a substitute.

13. The directions of the Discipline 1920, par. 623, 624, 625, and 626, will be strictly enforced. Students should read with care.

14. All local preachers who are candidates for ordination will report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners for examination.

15. All written work must be in the hands of examiners by March first, in order to receive credit. The District Superintendents are requested to urge all candidates for examination to appear at the Mid-year Institute. On motion, it was decided that before a man may be advanced from the Studies of the First and Third Year, he must have out at least two-thirds of his work. The next Institute will be held October 16, 17, and 18, 1923 at Kokomo (Grace Church), Indiana.

16. Examination at Mid-year and the Conference of 1924 will be in the new course of studies. For Collateral Reading, see Directions and Helps.

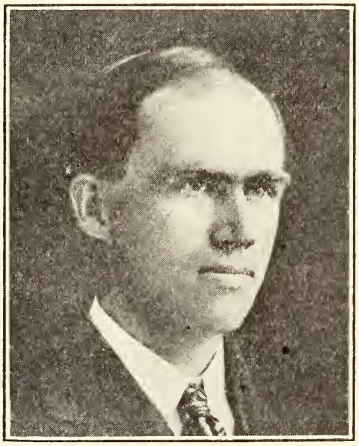
(XII) Memoirs.

REV. ERNEST T. CLARK.

Ernest T. Clark, only child of B. F. and Minerva Clark, was born at Kennard, Ohio, August 7, 1887, and called from this life at Elkhart, Indiana, April 14, 1922, age thirty-four years, eight months, and seven days. His boyhood was spent in Champaign County, Ohio. He attended high school at Mechanicsburg and graduated in 1907. He then taught school for two years.



Rev. Ernest T. Clark

He was converted in the Friends Church, under the pastorate of "Uncle" Henry Johnson when he was thirteen years of age, and was licensed to preach in the Friends Church in 1907. A little later he entered the Cincinnati Methodist Conference and was given his first charge at Walker and Union, in Butler County, Ohio, 1910. While serving here he also attended Miami University. Next he spent a year and a half at Christiansburg, but owing to ill health resigned this place and took charge of the boys' agricultural work in one of the Methodist homes. When he regained his health he again entered the active ministry and was assigned to New Moorefield, Ohio, serving there two terms. While there he attended Ohio Wesleyan University.

His next charge was Osborn, Ohio, where he remained in the work three years. Returning to Christiansburg he again served for a short time, and from there he was assigned to Centerville, Indiana, which charge he was serving at the time of his death. He was united in marriage to Anna Dye, of Champaign County, in August, 1908, the Rev. Henry Johnson officiating.

He leaves a father, mother, his wife Anna, a foster daughter Ethel, many relatives, friends, and acquaintances; also a large number of young men, members of the Kappa Sigma Pi, of which he was district chaplain, to mourn their loss. From the day of his conversion he lived an earnest, conscientious, Christian life, constantly striving to do the will of the heavenly Father by loving service to God and man.

As a pastor, he carried the burden of the church upon his heart. With a long list of the names of every member of the church, and also those whom he desired to see brought into the kingdom of God, he entered daily into the closet of prayer and pleaded for divine grace, blessings, and mercy upon them.

To the aged he was ever attentive; to the young, especially the boys, he ever held up the high ideal of Christian life and pointed them to the perfect example, Christ.

One year ago, a sick man, he attempted to attend the Conference session at Elkhart. He was assigned to his place of entertainment, to which he went immediately, and never left his room until God called him home, on Friday, April 14, a few days after the adjournment of the session.

Although he could not speak in the last moments of his life, he lifted his head and pointed heavenward, smiled into the face of his mother a peaceful and assuring smile that was a prophecy of the safety of his soul. Thus his life was beautifully finished on the anniversary of the death of his

Saviour, and almost the same hour he heard the words of the Father saying, "Well done; thou hast been faithful; enter into the joy of thy Lord."

A funeral service was conducted in his home church at Centerville, to which he had been reappointed at the Conference session, and was in charge of his district superintendent, Rev. Somerville Light, who brought a message of great comfort. A number of the other members of the Conference were present and assisted in the services. A later service was held in his old home church at Urbana, Ohio. Here the message was brought by Rev. J. P. Simmonds. The body was laid to rest in the Oak Dale Cemetery, at Urbana, Ohio.

MRS. CAROLINE PATTERSON.

Mrs. Caroline Stewart Patterson, wife of the late Rev. A. M. Patterson, was born November 17, 1843, near Camden, Carroll County, Indiana. Her early life was spent in the same community and there, amid the primeval forests, she grew into a life of innocence and trustfulness which was rewarded by her marriage to A. M. Patterson in the year 1861, October 2. In the year 1874 he became a member of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for twenty-six years she was his helper in the home and all the interests of the church. It is almost impossible for one to write or speak words good enough for a mother. Her love for all that was good; her unfaltering trust in God; the fireside where she taught the hymns of the church to the children whom the heavenly Father had entrusted to her care, her voice trembling with emotion while she read the words of the Holy Bible, and then bowed before God to lead that little circle to the throne of grace and ask the divine blessing for the day, are memories that come over the years of a lifetime with a significance that seems divine. While her husband traveled circuits with a large number of appointments, holding revival meetings through all the winter months, she remained at home, faithful to her divinely-appointed task. She devoted her life to the propagation and conservation of Christian forces and ideals in the home and church. Reading the Bible and the Western Christian Advocate, and singing the hymns of the church and reading good books, she passed many happy hours. This method of living developed faith in God, hope for the future life, and love for all that was pure and good. Her deeds were Christian, her habits Christlike, and her character divine. She loved the lines sang by P. P. Bliss:

Mrs. Caroline Patterson

"So on I go, not knowing—
I would not if I might—
I would rather walk in the dark with God,
Than go alone in the light.
I would rather walk by faith with Him,
Than go alone by sight."

Early in the morning of July 31, 1922, while the rosy fingers of day were coming over the eastern sky, the veil was lifted from her dimming eyes and she beheld the glories of the eternal city, her everlasting home. Three sons are left to carry on the work of the Kingdom: W. F. Patterson, of Winamac, Indiana; Charles E. Patterson, of Milan, Michigan, and Rev. James A. Patterson, who has been for thirty-two years a minister in the Northwest and North Indiana Conferences. Rev. B. Hollopeter conducted brief and appropriate services in the chapel of the Memorial Home at Warren, and the final services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Alexandria, at 11 o'clock, the second day of July, 1922. The services were in charge of Dr. J. A. Beatty, district superintendent of Muncie District, and he was assisted by Dr. L. C. Bently, of Anderson, and Rev. Herbert Boase, of Alexandria. Interment was made in the beautiful cemetery in Alexandria by the side of her husband.

MRS. ELLA MAY BOSTON.

Ella May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McCarter, was born at Pleasant Grove, Fulton County, Indiana, May 4, 1857. In early life she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, thus giving many years in the work of the Master.

January 25, 1881, she was united in marriage to Rev. W. S. Boston, who was then one of the young ministers of the North Indiana Conference. She entered heartily into the work of her husband, and contributed in no small measure to the successful work and career of this splendid man of God.. The marriage ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. W. S. Birch, at Palestine, Indiana. Together these two devoted people served successfully the following charges: Lewisville, Centerville, Pierceton, Logansport, Market Street.

Mrs. Ella May Boston

Since the death of her husband, which occurred July 25, 1894, Sister Boston has been making her home at Pendleton, where during all these lonely years she has constantly lived a life of great inspiration and helpfulness to her home church and the pastor. One of the outstanding characteristics of the life of Sister Boston was her life of prayer. She not only believed in prayer, but showed her faith by her works.

Even after the death of her husband, Sister Boston manifested great interest in the sessions of the North Indiana Conference and frequently attended the sessions, with a keen interest in the business of the Conference.

In the beautiful personal life she lived in her touch and work among the people whom they served, Sister Boston won many and enduring friends who will hear of her death with great personal sorrow. She died at Pendleton, October 2, 1922, at the age of sixty-five years, four months, and twenty-eight days.

The funeral services were conducted in her home church at Pendleton, by her pastor, Rev. J. O. Powell, who was assisted by the district superintendent of Muncie District, Rev. J. A. Beatty, D.D., and Rev. F. A. Guthrie, D.D., after which the body was buried in the cemetery near Pendleton.

REV. MILLARD PELL.

In the death of Rev. Millard Pell, the North Indiana Annual Conference has lost one of her finest type of devoted and sincere ministers. He was quiet and retiring in disposition, never obtrusive, yet was effective and energetic in his work in the ministry. He was never suspected of entanglements, or a party to any political schemes. His was a life of singular sincerity, purity, and unselfishness.

He was the oldest in the family of Hunter and Ann Pell, consisting of five children, and was born in Masontown, Preston County, West Virginia, August 25, 1859. He was converted in very early life and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon after his conversion he heard a very definite call to the ministry; so clear indeed was the call that he could not doubt it. With the call came the realization that a definite preparation was necessary for a special kind of important work. In answer to this impression he entered the West Virginia University, in which he pursued the work of preparation through his junior. He then entered Boston School of Theology, where he became a classmate of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes. He pursued his studies here until his graduation in 1892. He came to Indiana and supplied Milford and Syracuse charge, and in 1893 he was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference. Since that time he served the following charges in this Conference: 1893, Milford; '94-8, Gas City; '99-1900, Fairmount; '01-04, Lapel; '05-07, VanBuren; '08, Marion, Ninth Street and Home Park; '09-10, Fortville; '11-15, Kendalville; '16-19, Angola; '20-21, Knightstown; '22, Pennville.

Rev. Millard Pell

The following from the Angola (Indiana) Herald, in regard to his pastorate in that town, tells well the general story of his work in the ministry:

"Dr. Pell was one of the best-loved pastors who ever came to Angola. He was everybody's friend, regardless of creed, and especially did he endear himself to the boys who knew him for a trusted friend, a wise counselor, and a delightful comrade. . . . He was a preacher of whom his parishioners were never ashamed. Destructive higher criticism never bothered him; honestly and sincerely he preached the gospel of Jesus Christ. He was never an egotist, but a humble man, simple in his taste and manners. There was no artificiality about him; but he was so sincere that to know him was to love him. The people to whom he ministered had confidence in his profession, because it was backed by such a genuine like. He was faithful to the task put into his hands. He did not believe in inflation, but always tried to build on a solid foundation. Many will in the heavenly land call him blessed."

The intimate relation he sustained to the young men of his community is easily read between the lines in the following letter written by him about ten days before his death:

"Methodist Hospital, Indianapolis, Indiana, December 26, 1922.

"To Ralph Lampman, Ray Steifel, George Stiefel, Lyle Clark, Hugh Harmon, Nyhl Harmon, Fred Morley, Bayne Morley:

"My Dear Young Friends: I am writing you to acknowledge the receipt of that very beautiful bouquet of roses and carnations with which you brightened my Christmas Day. I like carnations and roses any time. No prettier flowers grow. They delight me anywhere. But the thing that lends especial charm to this bouquet is the picture that memory paints of former days and the fact that those whose faces I see in the picture have turned aside in the midst of holiday festivities to brighten the way of one who has no present claim upon their thoughts. Really, boys, there was wrapped up in that bunch of flowers for me the most delightful surprise and the most fragrant joy of all this Christmas season. Accept my grateful thanks and be assured of my deepest appreciation. Blessings upon you all.

"I am laid upon the shelf for a while and doomed to some weeks in the hospital. However, I am confidently expecting to come out in better condition than when I came in. Then I am counting on being able to challenge any of you for a boat race, hiking trip, a hunting expedition, or most anything you might name.

"I am cherishing for you all the very best time the season can afford, and I hope the new year may hold in store good health and real success for each one of you.

"Your friend, Millard Pell."

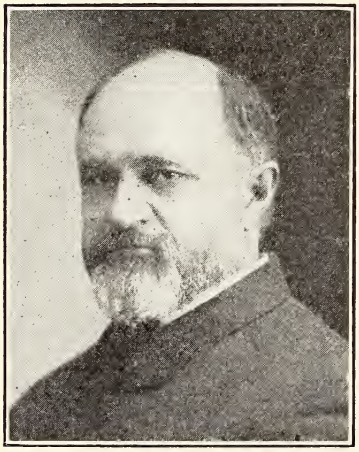
For some time Brother Pell had been in poor health. At last he was told that an operation was necessary. As a sufferer he entered the Methodist Hospital at Indianapolis, hoping to secure relief by an operation. This he naturally dreaded; but this gave way to trust, peace, and joy. He told one of his brethren in the ministry, who visited him in the hospital, that his views of death had changed entirely. At first, while he was not afraid to die, he thought of death as being a monster, but now he looked at death as being a door to a beautiful home, a door with a shadow on the earth side, but beautiful and glorious on the heavenly side. From the effects of the operation he did not rally, but passed away near midnight, Sunday, January 7, leaving a widow, to whom he had been married August 1, 1900, a Miss May Vandervort, who, with many friends, survive.

The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal Church in Angola, in charge of the pastor, L. G. Jacobs. The funeral address was delivered by Rev. Somerville Light, D.D., his district superintendent. The Scriptures were read by Revs. D. H. Guild and O. A. Trabue. W. W. Martin, D.D., and L. W. Kemper spoke words of appreciation. Prayer was offered by H. C. Harman. V. L. Clear and R. R. Detweiler assisted at the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery at Angola, Indiana.

REV. JOSEPH BESWICK COOK.

Joseph Beswick Cook, the son of James and Lydia Cook, was born June 28, 1850, in Kosciusko County, Indiana, three and one-half miles southwest of Warsaw. He was a member of a family of fifteen children. His early life was spent on his father's farm, attending district school eight months of the year, and working on the farm the balance of the year.

In a brief sketch of his life, prepared by himself some years ago, Brother Cook speaks of himself as being a source of anxiety to his parents by reason of his waywardness. "Often his mother called him to her side and talked to him about the Good Book, trying thereby to impress him with pure and holy desires." But the reading of the Book made little impression on him, and the mother would close it with a sigh.



Rev. Joseph Beswick Cook

He was sixteen before he attended church. About that time he attended a Quarterly Conference and was much impressed. He speaks of his conversion as follows: "When about seventeen years of age I was awakened and greatly convicted of sin, yielding not, but fighting convictions for six months. How terrible was the struggle I passed through! But few good nights' rest did I enjoy. Then by engaging in sin I was able to throw off the Spirit, until I almost had no concern for my soul." In 1869 revival meetings were in progress at Cook's Chapel, and Brother Cook attended regularly. The evening of March 6 was a fearfully stormy night and few were present. He met his chum as usual, and after some conversation they agreed to go to the altar. "How dark and fearful was the night! The blackness and darkness of hell seemed to be opened against me." It was not until the second night at the altar that peace came.

In 1873 he was licensed to preach, and in 1874 he was appointed at the Annual Conference to Liberty Mills. Then began a long, fruitful ministry of forty years. His were the trials of the itinerant of those days—many churches to care for, much traveling and preaching to be done, small remuneration for services so devotedly given. His appointments were as follows: Liberty Mills, Mt. Etna, Galveston, Point Isabel, New Waverly, Santa Fe, Goldsmith, Poneto, Monroe, Farmland, Redkey, where he probably had his most fruitful pastorate; Lapel, Garrett, Geneva, Albany circuit, Summitville, Ossian, Monroeville, Harlan, and Denver.

Some years ago a brief summary of the achievements of his ministry appeared in the Advocate. It stated that he had traveled 140,000 miles, and preached 12,000 sermons. There had been 3,100 conversions, and 2,700 people had united with the church. In one year there were 600 conversions. Several ministers and missionaries were sent out as a result of his ministry. He built three churches, repaired fifteen, besides building and repairing many parsonages. In many charges he had continuous revivals. The largest missionary offering of a single year of his ministry was $3,300.

Brother Cook was a strong prohibitionist and temperance worker in those days when it required great courage and a strong will. He was a man of strong convictions and never hesitated to express himself in terms that embodied no compromise. He seemingly had but little if any fear of bodily harm that might come to him from the liquor crowd.

Brother Cook was in a pre-eminent degree a gospel preacher. In the conducting and management of a revival campaign he had few superiors, as is shown in the large number of souls won to Christ in his ministry.

In 1914 he retired from active work and moved to Warsaw, where he has since made his home. He was a blessing to the local church and his many friends. His cheerful, sane, and devout attitude toward life and the religious experience made his testimonies a great spiritual uplift.

On Sunday, December 31, he attended church for the last time. While it was recognized that he was growing weaker in body, no one thought the summons from this life was so soon to be heard. But he quietly slipped away January 16, 1923, to enter what he spoke of as "the better home awaiting him."

Brother Cook was married twice. His first wife, who was Emily Snyder, died at Farmland, in 1888. To them four children were born, two of whom died in infancy. His second wife was Miss Mary Elizabeth Manor, whom he married October 1, 1889. To them two children were born. He is survived by his wife, two sons: Harris R., of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and William J., of St. Paul, Minnesota; two daughters: Mrs. Gladys Seashols, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Emily Shoup, of Warsaw; also four grandsons.

The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal Church, Warsaw, January 19, 1923, and were in charge of Rev. C. B. Croxall, his pastor, who was assisted by Rev. C. U. Wade, W. B. Freeland, and A. G. Neal, each speaking briefly of his life and character. A choir composed of the ministers of the Conference in attendance sang three hymns. His body was laid away in the cemetery at Warsaw to await the call to the life beyond. Thus has gone another of our strong and successful ministers.

MRS. BARBARA ANN McDANIEL.*

Barbara Ann McDaniel, daughter of Whitten and Mary Cecil, was born near New Burlington, December 26, 1848, and departed this life on February 22, 1923, at the family home in Muncie, following a brief illness of pneumonia, at the age of seventy-four years.

She had lived practically all her life in Delaware County and had a wide acquaintance. She grew up surrounded by Christian influences and never knew what it was not to be religiously inclined. When about twelve years of age she had a definite consciousness of personal relationship with God and was received into the Methodist Church under the ministry of Dr. Johnson. Her religious life was never demonstrative, but was always certain and ready for service as her health and strength permitted.

She was united in marriage on May 2, 1877, to the Rev. James W. McDaniel, a minister in the North Indiana Conference. To this union there was born two children: Harry C. and Mary Edith.

As a minister's wife she was always interested in every phase of the church's activities, and in a quiet, unostentatious way exerted a very marked influence that accounts for a part of the success of her husband in his various pastorates. Together they served the following charges in Indiana: Eden, Camden, Huntsville, Santa Fe, and Point Isabelle. To her Christ was not only a dear, but a real and ever-conscious presence, bringing into her life the joy of assured rest. She trusted in him implicitly and delighted to do his will. She loved her family with a sincere, pure love, and found one of her greatest joys in doing for them and in training them for God and future usefulness.

With these characteristic elements appearing so prominent in her daily routine of life we need not dread the sunset. When it came it brought no disappointment, for with her it was peaceful and calm. Death came peacefully; her work was done, and like a child she went to sleep. From that sleep she awoke to "see her Saviour face to face." She is survived by the husband; one daughter, Mary Edith, who resides at home; one son, Harry C., of St. Paul, Minnesota; one stepson, Walter C., of Topeka, Kansas, and two brothers: John B. Cecil, of New Burlington, and Charles W. Cecil, of Providence Ford, Virginia. She was a member of the Normal City Methodist Episcopal Church, in Muncie.

Funeral services for Sister McDaniel were conducted in the Normal City Methodist Episcopal Church, in Muncie, Indiana, February 24, 1923. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Dale C. Beatty, pastor of the church; the Scripture lesson was read by the Rev. James A. Beatty, superintendent of the Muncie District, and prayer was offered by the Rev. W. W. Brown, retired minister, residing in Muncie. The body was buried in Beech Grove Cemetery, in Muncie.

(d) LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Kokomo, Indiana, April 6, 1923.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in annual session at the Baptist Church at nine o'clock A. M., with President Elwood Starbuck in the chair. Vice-president G. E. Meck had charge of the music and Vice-president L. N. Scott led the devotions. Hymns No. 72 and 64 were sung and Brother A. B. Cline led the prayer service. Hymn No. 230 was sung with Miss Mary Colvin at the piano. The Scripture lesson was read from the twenty-fifth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, and after remarks by Brother Scott a testimony service was participated in by fifteen members.

The following committees were appointed by President Starbuck: Nominating—E. A. Loop, Tom Coppock, Dean B. W. Ayers, Mrs. W. H. Chandler, Charles L. Hand, and A. B. Cline; Resolutions—C. W. Beecher, Dr. Wm. Enslen, Mrs. Josie Nelson, M. A. Clapper, Wm. G. Connolly, E. E. Youse; and a special committee on State of the Association consisting of F. W. Greene, A. H. Sapp and A. B. Cline.

J. Loren Elliott, of Wabash, gave a splendid address on the "Personal Touch," which fully justified the reports as to his ability.

Mrs. W. H. Chandler, of Penville, a member of the last General Conference, and a member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, gave an address of great inspiration.

The famous Redkey Quartet sang so well that they were encored. They very much deserve the praise that is being given them for the service of song they are rendering.

Mr. E. A. Loop, of Warsaw, was introduced by the president with the kindly words that we had heard from the representative of the farm and the home, and that the next speaker was an insurance adjuster. Brother Loop spoke to the subject, "Our Young People," in a very able manner.

The Redkey Quartet was called upon to render the "Old Rugged Cross," which was sung with great feeling.

F. W. Greene as secretary of the Lay Electoral Conference stated that in response to the instructions of the last Lay Electoral Conference to devise a method for saving the time of calling the roll at the opening of the Conference, the district superintendents would furnish him the names of the duly elected delegates and reserve delegates so he could make up the roll and the credentials would be given to the delegate elected that upon his arrival at the Conference the credential would be deposited with the committee on credentials before the opening of the session.

Miss Pauline Place (a sister of Mrs. Chandler), of Penville, a missionary in Japan, was introduced by President Starbuck, and a very instructive address was given covering the work being done in the field there.

The time for lunch having arrived, a most excellent banquet was served by the ladies of the Baptist Church. Following this, President Starbuck introduced former President A. B. Cline as toastmaster, who presented the much-loved bishop of the Indianapolis Area, Frederick Deland Leete, who in his wonderful way gave the crowning address of the day.

At two o'clock the afternoon session was resumed. Song No. 112 was sung and Vice-president C. H. Neff led the devotions. Of course he is an old favorite and they were splendid, so he continued the testimony service of the morning and response was made by many.

President Starbuck introduced Mr. Fred J. Beauchamp, a business man of Sheridan, who gave an elaborate address on the topic of "Vision," which deserved a great deal of praise.

Mr. Harry E. Hudson, of Anderson, was introduced by the president, and his address was one of the best ones presented in the two days' program, his topic being of great importance, "The Layman's Responsibility."

A collection was taken up to defray the expense of the association. Brothers Meck, Weaver, Hand, Stults and Polovina collected $25.41, which was turned over to the treasurer.

Brother Samuel Polovina, known all over the country as "Methodist Sam," was then introduced and gave an inimitable sermon on the subject, "It Pays to Obey." Everyone who has ever heard him understands that it is impossible to describe it.

The session was adjourned till nine o'clock A. M. on Saturday.

Saturday Morning, April 7, 1923.

After singing Nos. 196 and 5, Vice-president Jesse McKinney led our devotions, with Scripture reading and exhortations. Prayer was offered by Brothers Starbuck, Ward and Hand.

The report of the Nominating Committee was read as follows: President, Elwood Starbuck, 1218 Packard Avenue, Fort Wayne. Vice-president, W. R. Werking, Anderson. Secretary-treasurer, F. W. Greene, Syracuse. District Vice-presidents: Fort Wayne—Loring N. Scott, Fort Wayne; Goshen—D. C. Turnbull, Mishawaka; Logansport—G. E. Meck, Kokomo; Muncie—C. H. Neff, Anderson; Richmond—Jesse McKinney, Dunkirk; Wabash—A. H. Sapp, Huntington.

The committee asked that the name of J. D. Coppes, who has been chairman of this committee for several years, be entered, as he had telegraphed asking the election of the men named. This was done and, on motion, the nominees were elected by an unanimous vote.

The president presented Mrs. Chas. E. Kendrick, who has had a great deal to do with the home missionary work in the Calumet region, to speak on the theme, "Gary," which was handled in a masterly way, showing what had been done in many ways, also showing the many needed things that should and would have to be done to Christianize that rapidly growing section of the State. Her address was followed by some very pertinent remarks by our old friend, Rev. M. F. Stright, several questions being asked and many important items of information were brought out.

The Committee on Resolutions presented its report, which was adopted as read.

Resolutions.

We, the laymen of the North Indiana Conference in session assembled, are sensible of the courtesy and hospitality of the churches of Kokomo in providing us with such splendid quarters for our sessions.

We extend our thanks to the pastor and congregation of the First Baptist Church for the use of the church for our sessions, and to the ladies of the congregation for the splendid dinner served to the members and friends of this Association.

We thank Bishop Leete for his presence and his inspiring address to the members of this Association, and pledge him our hearty support in carrying out the program of the Council of the Indiana Area.

We congratulate the trustees and officers of the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged upon the completion, free from debt, of a hospital wing to the home at Warren, Indiana.

We congratulate our Hospital Board on the work of the hospitals in ministering to the sick and maimed in our State.

We commend the Western Christian Advocate, the official organ of the Indiana

Area, to the membership and congregations of our church and urge the continuation of the effort to place the Western in every Methodist home.

WHEREAS, There is a concerted attack on the Anti-Saloon League of America and of the various State organizations because of its assistance in the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Association endorse the officers and policy of the Anti-Saloon League and call upon all persons interested in the enforcement of the Volstead Act and all other enforcement laws to support and assist the Anti-Saloon League in the enforcement of these laws.

The Lord's Day Alliance is an interdenominational organization endorsed by sixteen denominations whose object is to preserve the American Christian Sabbath and secure for the toilers of the nation one day of rest in seven.

WHEREAS, The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has endorsed the Lord's Day Alliance, and

WHEREAS, An Indiana branch has been organized with a State board representing sixteen denominations, with Rev. T. J. Johnson, D.D., of our Conference, as State secretary, therefore be it

Resolved, That we heartily commend the Lord's Day Alliance in its effort to save the Lord's Day and request all our people, so far as possible, to co-operate in this most important movement.

WHEREAS, The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has repeatedly urged the Annual Conferences to raise funds for the endowment of Conference claimants interests, and

WHEREAS, The extreme necessity exists to do so in order that the worn-out preachers, their widows and orphans may maintain themselves as becomes honored servants of the Church, and

WHEREAS, The Preachers' Aid Society of our Conference has undertaken to raise a permanent fund of not less than one million dollars for our Conference, and

WHEREAS, The Preachers' Aid Society is making commendable progress in getting the one million ($1,000,000.00) dollar fund subscribed;

Resolved, That we, the Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference, speaking for the united laity of the Conference, pledge our most hearty, persistent and loyal support to this effort, in the expectation that it will be fully subscribed and paid.

Resolved, That the Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference hereby express the utmost confidence in the consecrated life and Christian character of our Brother Samuel E. Polovina, and we earnestly recommend him to the Board of Home Missions for work among the foreign-speaking people of the Calumet region.

C. W. BEECHER, M. A. CLAPPER,
DR. WM. ENSLEN, E. E. YOUSE,
MRS. JOSIE NELSON, WM. G. CONNELLY,
Committee.

The report of the Committee on State of the Association was read by the secretary, and the following amendment to the Constitution was presented:

"Amendment to Section 4 of the Constitution of the Laymen's Association:

"The members of this Association shall consist of one delegate and one-half as many reserve delegates elected for each one hundred members or the majority thereof, elected at the fourth quarterly meeting of each charge in the bounds of each district in the Conference. The officers of the Association shall be members during the sessions they shall serve as such officers. All members of the Association who have been in attendance at the meetings continuously for five years shall be life members of the Association, and the secretary shall prepare a roll of such members who shall have all the rights of membership during their membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The reserve delegate shall have the same rights as the delegate except when the roll of the Churches is being called, at which time he can only vote during the absence of the delegate."

This proposed amendment was discussed by several members and explained by the committee and was adopted by the unanimous vote of the members present.

The following resolution was introduced by request of the president:

"Resolved, That the sessions of this Association hereafter be confined to one day, Friday of the Conference week, except those years when the Lay Electoral Conference meets." This resolution was adopted by an unanimous vote.

Brother D. C. Turnbull, of Mishawaka, introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved, That an apportionment be made of one cent per Church member from each charge for development of Lay Association work, this to be made a part of the budget in the current expense of the charge where possible. Otherwise the district steward or reserve steward in each charge may collect and forward at Conference time in place of the present form of collections." The secretary made the motion that the question be referred to a committee to take it up with the bishop and cabinet with power to act. Brother H. L. Burr seconded the motion and after favorable discussion the motion was supported by an unanimous vote. President Starbuck appointed the following committee: F. W. Greene, A. H. Sapp, A. B. Cline, H. L. Burr, D. C. Turnbull.

President Starbuck introduced Miss Hilkert, who in a very pleasing talk introduced Miss Nannie Borroughs, of Washington, D. C., who delivered an exceptionally able address, setting forth the great progress made by the American Negro and the wonderful development made in the past sixty years. The audience was so thrilled by the address that, upon the call of the president, a rising vote of thanks was given to show our appreciation.

A second collection was taken amounting to $7.25. The treasurer's report is shown in the proceedings.

The secretary called the attention of the Association to the fact that every speaker on the program had taken the part assigned them, and that during the ten or eleven consecutive years that he had attended the meetings this was the first time this had happened. He further moved that a rising vote of thanks be given Brother Starbuck and the speakers and quartet that had made a complete success of the sessions. Brother Starbuck expressed his appreciation for the vote of thanks in a most pleasing manner and stating that he had not written to any of those taking part asking them to take the place except Miss Borroughs, that he had written each one telling them that he had given them the topic and expected them to fill the place; he further called for a vote of thanks for the secretary for the work that he had done. This was very pleasing to the secretary.

After a few pleasant remarks by those present, the president called upon Brother C. C. Ayers to close the session with a final prayer. At 12.30 P. M., at the noon banquet served to more than one hundred persons, Brother Arthur H. Sapp served as toastmaster and responses were made by Dr. George R. Grose, president of DePauw University, and Dr. Alfred F. Hughes, president of Evansville College. Thus closed the best session of the Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference.

ELWOOD STARBUCK, President.

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1923, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated; Sy. Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired; Tr., Transferred. SECRETARY.

Explanatory.—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment. 02-6 means five years of service on that charge
